EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Introduction

1. The purpose of the survey is to collect data on the existing manpower situation in order to project future manpower requirements and training needs of the hotel industry. The fieldwork took place from 13th October to 13th November 2015 with follow-up cases completed in February 2016.

2. The survey had a full coverage of the listed 296 establishments and Chinese restaurants operated by hotels in the Central Register of Establishments of the Census and Statistics Department (C&SD). The two main HSIC branches of the industry are as follows:

Branch 1: Hotels (HSIC 5501)
244 establishments

Branch 2: Chinese Restaurants Operated by Hotels (HSIC 561109-561111)
52 establishments

3. Out of the 296 establishments surveyed, 189 completed and returned the questionnaires and there were 35 refusal cases. The effective response rate was 86.2%.

Industry Outlook

4. In 2015, global economic activity remained subdued. Since the start of 2016, the global economic climate has continued to be unsteady, marked by increasing risks, amid the modest and patchy economic growth of advanced economies, downward pressures on emerging markets and heightened geopolitical tension. Global growth is projected at 3.4% in 2016 and 3.6% in 2017. Growth in advanced economies is projected to rise by 0.2 percentage point in 2016 to 2.1%. (Sources: World Economic Outlook (WEO) UPDATE, An update of the key WEO projections, International Monetary Fund, 19 January 2016; The 2016-17 Budget, Speech by the Financial Secretary, moving the Second Reading of the Appropriation Bill 2016, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016.)

For global tourism, 2015 marked the 6th consecutive year of above-average growth, with international arrivals increasing by 4% or more annually since 2010. In 2015, international tourist arrivals grew by 4.4% in 2015 to reach a total of 1,184 million. Growth in advanced economy destinations (+5%) exceeded that of emerging economies (+4%), boosted by the solid results of Europe (+5%).

Results from the United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) Confidence Index remain largely positive for 2016 which projects international tourist arrivals to grow by 4% worldwide. Among the world's top source markets, the Mainland China, with double-digit growth in expenditure every year since 2004, continues to lead global outbound travel, benefitting Asian destinations such as Japan and Thailand, as well as the United States and various European destinations. (Source: "International tourist arrivals up 4% reach a record 1.2 billion in 2015", UNWTO, 18 January 2016.)

Airline CFOs and heads of cargo indicated in late 2015 that although the economic growth forecast for 2016 has been lowered, the consensus remained that 2016 should be slightly better than 2015, as continued low energy costs boost consumer incomes and spending. (Source: Economic Performance of the Airline Industry, 2015 End-year report, The International Air Transport Association (IATA) Economics, 10 December 2015.)

5. Export performance of the Asian region was hit by the global economic setback and highly volatile financial markets in 2015. Inbound tourism was weak and visitor arrivals to Hong Kong dropped 2.5% for the whole year. The value of total exports of goods and the number of visitor arrivals in Hong Kong both recorded a year-on-year decline since mid-2015, and the fall is likely to be more severe in 2016. Gross Domestic Product (GDP) growth in real terms at 1 – 2% in 2016, lower than last year's growth. Given the subdued global commodity prices, imported inflation is expected to be relatively mild. The headline inflation rate for 2016 will be 2.3%, with the underlying inflation rate at 2%. (Source: The 2016-17 Budget, Speech by the Financial Secretary, moving the Second Reading of the Appropriation Bill 2016, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016.) However, deepening economic integration with the Mainland China enables extensive growth opportunities, via varied economic activities, particularly in view of the National 13th Five-Year Plan and the "Belt and Road" initiative. Taking into account the challenges in the external environment and on the domestic front, the economy is expected to attain a moderate trend growth of 3% per annum from 2017 to 2020. (Source: 2015 Economic Background and 2016 Prospects, Hong Kong Economy, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016.) After the rapid growth over the past 10 years, Hong Kong's tourism industry has entered a consolidation period. Being affected by a volatile global economy and other macro-economic conditions, visitor arrivals to Hong Kong registered a decrease of 2.5% to 59.31 million in 2015. (Source: Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, Hong Kong Tourism Board (HKTB) Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)

The average achieved hotel room rate in 2015 was HK$1,337 which was a decrease of 9.2% from that of the previous year. The average length of stay of overnight visitors remained at 3.3 nights, same as 2014. Meanwhile, the average hotel room occupancy rate declined by 4 percentage points to 86%. (Sources: Hotel Room Occupancy Report – January 2016, PartnerNet, HKTB, February 2016; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government February 2016.)

6. Our neighbors within the region and destinations around the world are enhancing their tourism developments and stepping up their marketing efforts in drawing incoming visitors for pleasure or business.

Macau has transformed from a gaming destination to one with a more diverse range of entertainment and recreation options for guests of all ages; Singapore has new tourist spots opening up one after another almost every year between 2008 and 2015; South Korea has managed to develop existing scenic locations into a number of new tourist attractions by leveraging on the popularity of Hallyu (Korean Wave). The significant depreciation of the Japanese Yen and the Euro made these countries more appealing to visitors. Other than the aforementioned regions, Malaysia, Indonesia, Taiwan, the U.S.A., the U.K., Australia and Canada have relaxed visa requirements or simplified their visa application procedures for Mainland China's visitors. (Sources: "Marriott openings highlight Macau growth", Asia-Pacific IHIF Hotel Investment News, June 2015; Hong Kong's tourism industry, Research Brief, Issue No. 6 2014 – 2015, Research Office, Legislative Council Secretariat, The HKSAR Government, August 2015; Press Release, "MGTO holds Annual Press Conference Fosters smart tourism and expands international visitor markets Enhances tourism service quality and synergistic effect between tourism, culture and sports”, Macao Government Tourism Office, 27 January 2016; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTb Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)

7. In 2015, Mainland China continued to be Hong Kong’s largest visitor source market with 45.84 million arrivals despite there was a 3% decrease over 2014 in total arrivals, and a decrease of 5.7% in overnight visitor arrivals. The drop of Mainland visitor arrivals to Hong Kong was due to a range of external and internal factors, such as the depreciation of currencies and relaxed visa requirements in the aforementioned destinations which drawn Mainland visitors to those places; the slowdown of economic growth in the Mainland which affected consumers’ spending pattern and their desire to travel; a few unfortunate incidents directed against Mainland tourists which affected the latter’s desire to visit Hong Kong; and the implementation of the “one trip per week” measure for Shenzhen permanent residents which replaced the “multiple-entry” Individual Visit Endorsements etc. (Sources: Press Release, “Statement by the HKTb on the Adjustment of the Policy on Multiple-entry Individual Visit Endorsements for Shenzhen Residents by the Mainland Authorities”, HKTb, 13 April 2015; LC Paper No. CB(4)483/15-16/03, Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 20 January 2016; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTb Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)

8. Arrivals from long-haul markets in 2015 had minor changes as compared with that in 2014, with the U.S.A. as the best performer achieving a 4.5% growth whilst arrivals from Europe slightly dropped by 1.8%.

For short-haul markets, total arrivals declined by 1.0% in 2015 though satisfactory growth was recorded for Thailand (+9.1%) and the Phillipines (+10.9%). India and Vietnam also recorded healthy growth at 3% and 7.2% respectively.

Taking account external and internal factors, the HKTb projected that there would be a decrease of 1.8% to about 58.27 million total visitor arrivals in 2016. Among them, the total number of Mainland arrivals is projected to decrease by 3.2%, while the arrivals from non-Mainland markets are expected to increase by 3%. (Sources: Press Releases, “LCQ5: Tourism promotion projects and programmes”, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 27 January 2016; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTb Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)

9. The HKSAR Government and industry partners consider it necessary that Hong Kong’s tourism industry should not merely focus on the growth in tourist numbers, but should move towards diversified and quality-driven high value-added services. (Source: Press Releases, “LCQ5: Tourism promotion projects and programmes”, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 27 January 2016.) There are suggestions that Hong Kong should attract more inbound business travelers coming for meetings, conventions, exhibitions and other commercial events, and take effective measures to enable the further growth of the cruise tourism. (Source: Hong Kong’s tourism industry, Research Brief, Issue No. 6 2014-2015, Research Office, Legislative Council Secretariat, The HKSAR Government, August 2015.)

In the face of the relatively strong Hong Kong dollar, overnight Meetings, Incentives, Conventions and Exhibitions (MICE) arrivals decreased 5.2% compared to 2014. However, it is worthwhile to note that overnight Mainland business arrivals to Hong Kong in 2015 rose 11.4% due to vigorous commercial activities between the Mainland and Hong Kong, and a growth of 3.3% in total business arrivals to 8.03 million, of which overnight business arrivals increased by 4.3%. (Source: Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)

With the new “Belt and Road” initiative and Hong Kong’s long-standing and unique role as the “super-connector” between the vast Mainland Chinese market and the rest of the world, Hong Kong is poised to benefit from this new framework for organising multinational economic development. Furthermore, the scale of tourism will be expanded and it will be made more convenient to apply for tourist visas in countries along the Belt and Road. (Sources: Press Releases, “SCED’s speech at gala dinner in Berlin”, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 2 June 2015; Maritime Insight Issue 1 June 2015.)

10. Tourism contributes 5% to our GDP and employs 270,000* people. (* Figure according to the four key Industries provided by the C&SD which included employment of (A) Inbound tourism covering retail trade, accommodation services, food & beverage services, cross-boundary passenger transport services and others; and (B) Outbound tourism covering travel agency, reservation services and related activities, and cross-boundary passenger transport services.) Total Expenditure Associated with Inbound Tourism (TEAIT) decreased 7.0% year-on-year to HK$333.7 billion. As compared to the figures of 2014 with overnight visitor per capita spending (PCS) at HK$7,235, there was a decrease of 9.1%. Meanwhile, visitor satisfaction remained unchanged at 8.2 points on a 10-point scale. It is projected that the total visitor arrivals in 2016 will drop by 1.8% while the TEAIT and PCS will drop by 1.6% and 4% respectively. (Source: Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.) To ensure that Hong Kong continues to evolve as a preferred destination for tourists and business-related arrivals, the HKSAR Government has been investing to enrich the tourism portfolio. The new and enhanced tourism infrastructure and attractions will create jobs, promote economic activities and facilitates the continuous healthy development of the industry. According to information provided by the HKSAR Government and various sources, major tourism and transportation projects and initiatives being implemented and under planning included:

- (i) In order to attract diversified visitors, Hong Kong would expand the capacity to capture potential arrivals and divert tourists to different regions in Hong Kong. Plans have been put forward for the development of the Lantau Island into a Hong Kong’s new commercial hub, as well as a tourist haven. Moreover, the development of a tourism node at Kai Tak as part of the Kai Tak Fantasy project is also under planning by the HKSAR Government. (Sources: Press Release, “Economic Development Commission holds ninth meeting”, Information Services Department, The HKSAR Government, 27 November 2015; “Disneyland expansion part of massive Lantau land reclamation project to house 700,000 more by 2030”, South China Morning Post, 11 January 2016.)

- (ii) To celebrate the 10th anniversary, Hong Kong Disneyland Resort introduced an amazing array of new entertainment in 2015 for guests to enjoy. In June 2016, new “Star Wars”-themed offerings have also been launched. The Resort will continue to introduce new initiatives, such as a new themed area based on Marvel’s “Iron Man” franchise and a new hotel with a theme dedicated to the spirit of exploration that will open in end-2016 and early 2017 respectively. In addition, the HKSAR Government is in discussion with The Walt Disney Company for further development of the Hong Kong Disneyland Resort. The Ocean Park’s new Water World is scheduled for completion in the second half of 2018, together with its first hotel and second hotel to be opened in 2017 and 2020 respectively, these will transform Hong Kong’s People’s Park into a premier international resort destination. (Sources: Press Release, “Hong Kong Disneyland Resort to kick off year-long 10th anniversary celebration Resort to honor 10 magical years of growth in Hong Kong with new attractions and entertainment”, Hong Kong Disneyland, 11 September 2015; Press Release, “Appointment of Most Preferred Proponent for the Development of The Fullerton Hotel @ Ocean Park”, Ocean Park, 4 February 2016; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTb Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)
- (iii) The Tourism Commission plans to further improve the facilities along Lei Yue Mun waterfront area. Subject to the completion of a comprehensive Environmental Impact Assessment on the full scope of the project and the funding approval for the project, the construction works is expected to commence in 2017 the earliest for completion by end 2020.
- (iv) In terms of accommodation, HKTb’s statistics showed that the number of hotels by December 2015 was 253 with 73,846 rooms. The estimated number of hotels and rooms supply in 2016 will be 274 and 76,643 respectively. More than 32,000 rooms had been added over the past decade, and it is expected that another 7,200 to come on stream and will amount to around 81,000 rooms by 2017. (Source: Hotel Supply Situation – as at December 2015, PartnerNet, HKTb, February 2016.)
- (v) The Hong Kong Observation Wheel came into operation in 2014 where tourists can enjoy stunning day and night time views of the spectacular Victoria Harbour. (Source: The Hong Kong Observation Wheel, HKTb, The HKSAR Government.) The new Central Waterfront has become a popular destination for visitors but is also being put to good use for large-scale events. (Source: SCED’s Articles, “Hong Kong continues to evolve as a tourist destination”, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 2 October 2015.) To capitalize on the night vista of Victoria Harbour in promoting tourism, HKTb will continue to launch the Hong Kong Pulse 3D Light Show from 5 to 28 August 2016 and from 25 November to 28 December 2016 to complement the staging of the HKTb’s mega events. Furthermore, the Tourism Commission is planning to rejuvenate “A Symphony of Lights”, a nightly light and sound show.

- (vi) To promote MICE tourism in 2016-17, the HKTB will continue to introduce tailored strategies for the various MICE markets near and far, as well as partnering with professional associations and convention organizers to attract more MICE events with high-spending power visitors to Hong Kong. To facilitate the development of the MICE business, the design work for the conference facilities above the proposed Exhibition Station of the Shatin to Central Link is underway. (Source: Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)
- (vii) As for cruise tourism, promotion efforts will include launching strategic promotion campaign in collaboration with international cruise lines for fly-cruise tourism; and promoting regional collaboration, such as making use of the Asian Cruise Fund to pool together financial incentives of neighbouring ports for developing and marketing cruise products featuring member ports. (Source: LC Paper No. CB(4)483/15-16(03), Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, January 2016; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)
- (viii) In order to actively enhance Hong Kong's attractiveness and to bring more diversified experience for tourists, leveraging revitalised historical buildings in the development of cultural and creative tourism has been one of the Government's important directions for strategic development. In recent years, newly developed tourist attractions under this strategy include PMQ, the creative industries landmark transformed from the former Police Married Quarters on Hollywood Road, as well as revitalised historic buildings such as YHA Mei Ho House Youth Hostel, Jao Tsung-I Academy (the former Lai Chi Kok Hospital), etc, which are conserved and revitalized under Development Bureau's "Revitalising Historic Buildings Through Partnership Scheme" (Source: Press Releases, "LCQ18: Regulation of tourism industry", Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 4 November 2015.)
- (ix) Cultural and creative tourism will be further developed by the HKSAR Government. Initiatives which had been launched in 2016 include: "Ani-Com Park@Harbour" "FUN", etc. On the promotion of Hong Kong's local culture, the HKTB has launched the "New Tour Product Development Scheme" since 2012 to encourage the travel trade to develop new tourism products by partly subsidizing the marketing costs. Included are new themed tours which showcase the local living culture, for instance, "Sham Shui Po Foodie Tour" and "Hand Made in Hong Kong" (Source: Press Releases, "LCQ18: Regulation of tourism industry", Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 4 November 2015.)
- (x) To reinvent Hong Kong's tourism image, HKTB has also planned to highlight the edges of Hong Kong's gourmet culture in future promotion efforts, such as featuring the attractiveness of Hong Kong's gourmet through international media and inviting Hong Kong chefs to perform at overseas

promotion activities of HKTB. (Source: LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(05), Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 22 February 2016.) A food truck pilot scheme which aims to add fun and vibrancy to Hong Kong's tourist attractions by providing diverse, creative and high quality food options to tourists and the locals, while maintaining the good standard of food hygiene and safety in Hong Kong will be launched by the HKSAR Government. (Source: LC Paper No. CB(4)481/15-16, Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 15 December 2015.)

- (xi) To maintain optimal service quality, the Executive Council endorsed the three-runway plan and asked the Airport Authority to take forward the project which has been planned for completion by 2024. (Sources: "Third runway plan endorsed", news.gov.hk, The HKSAR Government, 17 March 2015; Press Releases, "LCQ9: HKIA's capacity to receive passengers", Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 8 July 2015; The 2016 – 17 Budget, Speech by the Financial Secretary, moving the Second Reading of the Appropriation Bill 2016, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016.)
- (xii) With enhanced transportation network upon the completion of the Guangzhou-Shenzhen-Hong Kong Express Rail Link (XRL) planned for the third quarter of 2018, the connectivity between Hong Kong and the Mainland will be further enhanced in the coming few years. Together with the Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge (HZMB) planned for 2017, the HKTB will establish a co-operation platform with the Zhuhai Municipal Bureau of Culture, Sports and Tourism to pave the way for promoting multi-destination travel to Hong Kong and Zhuhai. (Source: Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, February 2016.) Large-scale infrastructure, including a Tuen Mun-Chek Lap Kok link, HZMB and the third runway of the airport will turn the geographical condition of Lantau from an outlying island to a significant region of Hong Kong with commercial and tourism activities. (Source: "Disneyland expansion part of massive Lantau land reclamation project to house 700,000 more by 2030", South China Morning Post, 11 January 2016.)
- (xiii) In 2016 – 17, the HKTB will continue to strengthen its partnership with destinations in the Pearl River Delta to promote multi-destination itineraries and products featuring Hong Kong, so as to consolidate the city's position as the travel hub in the region as well as to explore opportunities brought about by the "One Belt, One Road" initiative to boost multi-destination travel. (Source: Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016 – 17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)

11. Other than the aforementioned major tourism and transportation infrastructure projects and initiatives to facilitate tourism growth and economic activities, the HKSAR Government will launch different short-term to long-term measures to reduce industry's cost of operation and promote Hong Kong's attractiveness and competitiveness. These include the waiving of licence fees for industry operators amongst which 2,000 hotels and guest houses will benefit for one year. For the medium-term measures, the HKSAR Government and the industry will jointly expand the scale of major events to be held and to step up publicity for international sports events. To reinvent Hong Kong's tourism image, the HKTB will formulate a new image of our tourism niches, launch a new round of publicity for short-haul market and step up publicity in the Mainland for quality and honest tours. (Sources: 2015 Economic Background and 2016 Prospects, Hong Kong Economy, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016; [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(05)], Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 17 February 2016.)

Different spectacular mega events will be held in town as well to attract more high-spending overnight visitors to Hong Kong, thereby bringing about more business opportunities for sectors including tourism, retail, food and beverage, hotels, etc. The Mega Events Fund, operating under a two-tier system till end March 2017, aims to promote tourism, raise the profile of Hong Kong internationally and promote Hong Kong as an events capital of Asia by providing funding support to attract more mega arts, cultural, sports and entertainment events to be held in Hong Kong. (Sources: [LC Paper No. CB(4)112/15-16(01)], LegCo Panel on Economic Development, Meeting of 26 October 2015, Legislative Council, 26 October 2015; Press Releases, "LCQ5: Tourism promotion projects and programmes", Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 27 January 2016; Mega Events Fund official website [<http://www.tourism.gov.hk/english/mef/mef.html>].)

In September 2015, the HKSAR Government announced the setting up of a HK$10 million "Matching Fund for Overseas Tourism Promotion by Tourist Attractions" to provide local attractions with dollar-for-dollar subsidies to enhance their overseas promotions. The Scheme will be continued in 2016.

Implications on Manpower

12. For 2015, the labour market remained largely stable in overall terms, with the unemployment rate staying low at 3.3% in 2015. The average number of unemployed persons rose slightly by 1,500 over 2014 to 128,700. Comparing 2015 with 2014, more apparent increases were seen in tourism-related sectors such as accommodation services (up 1.1 percentage points). Wages and earnings attained real improvements as a result of the upward adjustment of the statutory minimum wage (SMW) rate since May 2015. (Source: 2015 Economic Background and 2016 Prospects, Hong Kong Economy, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016.) From the statistical figures, it reveals that the majority of the vacancies lies with the craft/operational level with the largest number for the positions of Room Attendant/ Room Services Butler/ Floor Attendant/ Housekeeping Clerk/ Order-taker/ Coordinator (Housekeeping).

13. Despite the shortfall of industry performance, there was no significant reduction in overall industry manpower which remained relatively stable at around 37,000. According to the 2022 Labour Forecast conducted by the HKSAR Government, the manpower demand on accommodation industry will raise by an average of 2.5% on a yearly basis.

14. In view of the various aforementioned efforts to boost tourism by the HKSAR Government and industry partners, together with the continuous development of Mainland China and our neighboring areas, more job opportunities are expected to be created in the future and an ongoing demand of trained quality manpower to benefit from the business opportunities is expected in the coming years.

- (i) According to the Hotel supply situation report, there will be an increase of around 53 new hotels with 10,236 additional rooms to be completed between end of 2015 and end of 2019. (Source: Hotel Supply Situation – as at December 2015, PartnerNet, HKTb, February 2016.) Based on a staff to room ratio of 0.65:1, approximately 6,650 new vacancies will be created in the aforementioned period for these new hotels. These new hotel projects indicated a positive projection of potential visitors who may travel to Hong Kong in future years where a consistent supply of trained hotel manpower is required to support the industry.
- (ii) A more diversified portfolio of arrivals is expected. The HKTb will allocate 74% of the total marketing budget, which is the regular subvention provided by the Government, to overseas markets in 2016-17, of which about 70% will be invested to attract visitors from Taiwan, Japan, South Korea, Southeast Asia, India and the U.S.A. The remaining 26% will be invested in the Mainland market, 90% of which will go to the non-Guangdong areas. The HKTb's promotion efforts will be focused on drawing high-yield arrivals with diversified products and travel experiences. Families and young segment from short-haul markets visiting Hong Kong as a desirable short-break getaway destination will be expected. As for new markets, more resources will be reserved for India, which performed relatively well in 2015. (Source: Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTb Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)
- (iii) The focus of promotion efforts will be shifted from shopping to different travel experiences, including Hong Kong's gourmet culture. (Source: Press Releases, "LCQ5: Tourism promotion projects and programmes", Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 27 January 2016.) A consistent supply of professionally trained employees in delivering a high quality of service standard and producing local delicacies and international cuisines at hotel establishments will be required for complementing the new initiative.
- (iv) The connectivity between Hong Kong and the Mainland China will be further enhanced upon the commissioning of the HZMB where Lantau will become the converging point of Guangdong, Hong Kong and Macao, which would in turn provide ample opportunities for business and travelling. The XRL will benefit Hong Kong's various service industries, promote Hong Kong's tourism, and create over 10,000 direct job opportunities. (Sources: 八幅圖同你睇高鐵, facebook of new.gov.hk, The HKSAR Government, 12 January 2016; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTb Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, February 2016.)
- (v) MICE as well as cruise tourism also draws high value-added visitors to Hong Kong. The HKTb will continue to strengthen promotion towards MICE event organisers and partner with professional associations and convention organisers so as to attract more MICE events as well as MICE visitors with high spending power to Hong Kong. (Source: Press Releases, “LCQ5: Tourism promotion projects and programmes”, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 27 January 2016.)

- (vi) It is anticipated that the number of ship calls at the Kai Tak Cruise Terminal (KTCT) in 2016 and 2017 will increase to 90 and 162 respectively from 58 in 2015. The total cruise passenger throughput of the KTCT was 228,809, which was double that of 2014. (Sources: Cruise Passenger Statistics by Nationality / Territory, HKTb, January 2016; KTCT Year-on-Year development, KTCT Official Website [<http://www.kaitakcruiseterminal.com.hk/highlights/>], January 2016.) The Government is also committed to developing cruise tourism in Hong Kong, including the promotion of regional co-operation with neighbouring ports to enhance the attractiveness of the whole region to cruise companies. (Source: Press Releases, “SCED’s speaking notes on commerce, industry and tourism areas tabled at LegCo Finance Committee special meeting”, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 30 March 2015; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTb Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)
- (vii) In 2016 – 17, the HKTb will continue to host numerous mega events and scale up these with enhanced and new elements. The core experiences Hong Kong offer will be promoted in various source markets including night life, attractions, living culture, arts and entertainment, sports and outdoor activities. (Source: Press Release, KTCT Celebrates a Year of Milestones in 2015”. Worldwide Cruise Terminals, 25 January 2016.)
- (viii) Since the current academic year, the Government has launched a subsidy scheme of HK$960 million for students pursuing self-financing under graduate programmes in selected disciplines, including tourism and hospitality. This reflects that a continuous supply of trained quality manpower is required for the sustainability of one of the important economic pillars of Hong Kong. (Source: The 2016-17 Budget, Speech by the Financial Secretary, moving the Second Reading of the Appropriation Bill 2016, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016.)

15. The Policy Address of 2016 indicated that young people can develop their interests and realise their potential through vocational education. The Government has accepted all the recommendations of the Task Force on Promotion of Vocational Education and will actively implement them. The recommendations include fully subsidising Applied Learning courses by secondary schools, extending the Pilot Training and Support Scheme to benefit two more cohorts of 2,000 students in total, and supporting major vocational and professional education and training providers to organise large-scale skills competitions to select representatives of Hong Kong to take part in world skills competitions. (Source: Policy Address 2016, The HKSAR Government, 13 January 2016.) As a leading Vocational and Professional Education Training (VPET) provider in the region with impact on local and global development, the Vocational Training Council (VTC) has identified areas for development including VPET promotion and re-structuring the programme portfolio, developing local, Mainland and international strategies etc. which help Hong Kong to develop and retain a well-trained and dedicated workforce in the long run. Back by staunch support from the Government, the VTC grooms quality manpower for the hotel and related industries. Vocational and professional education and training programmes on hotel studies ranging from degree, higher diplomas and certificates are available to groom new generations of industry personnel. In-service training programmes and various upgrading training courses and also available for knowledge and skills enhancement purposes. Furthermore, the 18-month Young Hotelier Development Pilot Scheme (also called Earn and Learn Pilot Scheme) was jointly launched by the Federation of Hong Kong Hotel Owners and Hotel and Tourism Institute (HTI) (formerly Hospitality Industry Training and Development Centre (HITDC)) of the VTC in September 2015 to provide training for students who are interested in joining the industry with a promising future.

16. It is generally noted among industry personnel that retaining the Millennials or Generation Y /Gen Y (those born between around 1980 – 2000) employees has become a major concern of the management. Some possible measures to tackle the issue include providing them with higher flexibility at work, such as arranging flexible working schedules and venues to allow them for balancing their work- and non-work obligations, as long as operational effectiveness and efficiency can be maintained. (Sources: Hong Kong Economic Times, 30 June 2015; ‘Generation Y at work: insight from experiences in the hotel sector’, International Journal of Business and Management Vol. III (1), 2015, Robert A. Lewis, Switzerland, 2015.)

17. By 2020 it is projected that half of the money spent in the travel sector will come out of the pockets of the Millennials. Hotel location and availability of technology are very important to the Millennials. As most of the Millennials will use mobile devices for booking hotels, checking-in and checking-out of hotels, they want flexibility and a seamless process with self-service rather than interaction with staff. The rise of life style and boutique hotels shows that major hotel brands are preparing for the Millennials. Gearing a hotel with technology and media are reasonable investment towards the generations to come. (Sources: “Millennials in the hospitality industry: how hotels need to adapt”, <https://www.daylighted.com>, 2015; “What Should Your Hotel Know About Generation Z?” <http://lodgingmagazine.com>, 1 March 2016.)

Highlights of Survey Findings

18. The survey reveals that as at September 2015, a total of 37 154 persons were employed in the hotel industry, of which 2 996 (8.06%) were in the managerial / professional level, 11 120 (29.9%) in supervisory / technician level, 21 823 (58.7%) in craft / operative level, and 1 215 (3.3%) in administrative and others level.

19. The Training Board has examined the survey findings and is of the opinion that those generally reflect the manpower situation of the hotel industry at the time of the survey. The Training Board considered that the trend for the increase in the total number of employees will continue.

Manpower Projection for 2016-2018

20. For the purpose of manpower projection, a staff to room ratio of 0.65:1 would be adopted to obtain the manpower projection. The projected number of hotel rooms by the Hong Kong Tourism Board will be used as a basis to project manpower as follows:

| Year | Actual Manpower | Employers Forecast | @Projected Manpower | #Projected No. of Rooms |
|-------------|------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 2015        | 37 154                 |                           |                            | 73 846                         |

Projected Additional Training Requirements

21. Based on the LMA forecast of manpower growth and adopting the wastage rates of 2% and 10% for the managerial / professional / supervisory / technician levels and craft / operative / administrative and others levels respectively, the Training Board projected the additional manpower requirements of the industry for 2016 as follows:

Recommendations

22. Having studied the results of the manpower survey and with reference to the industry circumstances, the Training Board has made the following recommendations for manpower training and development, as well as for attracting and retaining talents.

- (i) The hotel sector continues to play an important role in supporting the tourism industry which continues to be one of the four economic pillars of Hong Kong. To maintain a competitive edge, a supply of quality trained industry personnel at operative, supervisory and managerial levels will be necessary for differentiating the standard of Hong Kong's hotel service and related products from those of the regional competitors. To attract new entrants to join the hotel industry, it is vital to enhance the professional image and quality of vocational education and training of the hotel industry. The Government plays a pivotal role in propelling manpower development in meeting the industry's manpower needs. The Training Board opines that in order to create a positive mind-set of the public on the value of vocational and professional education and training, it is necessary that the Government, industry partners and training providers gather momentum for driving marketing and promotion efforts for this initiative in the community. Furthermore, the Training Board considers that increased provisions for further expansion and upgrading of training facilities and capacity will be essential for enhancing the learning environment as well as the professional image of vocational education and training.
- (ii) At present there are around 74,000 hotel rooms and an additional 7,300 hotel rooms are in the pipeline over the coming three years. With the materialization of these new hotel rooms, it is anticipated that the demand for hotel employees will be more intense. A consistent supply of operational level workforce to fulfill the manpower needs of the industry is required. Importation of labour would not deem feasible in the meantime in view of costs and other social factors. Moreover, to alleviate continuous industry manpower shortage, and in view of the changes in travelling patterns and modes of accommodation by visitors, Members opine that the Government should strategically plan and approve hotel projects in alignment with target markets and industry needs.
- (iii) The Training Board is of the opinion that the existing 37,154 strong in-service employees will need upgrading and updating training to remain competitive in the business arena. According to survey findings, 12.3% of the employees in the hotel industry did not receive any training in the past 12 months of the survey (Managerial: 1.3% Supervisory: 3.4% Operational: 6.6%); around 57.1% of the employees received training from less than 5 days to 2 weeks or above. Furthermore, the craft / operative level staff makes up the majority of the workforce and therefore training for this category would appear to be most demanded in the coming years. The industry indicated that 4498 new recruits were employed in the past twelve months of the survey, among whom 778 were without industry experience, with the highest number at the craft/operational level (87.7%). Also, amongst the new recruits, fresh graduates of hospitality studies accounted for 8.02%. Though sales revenue is ranked high priority in a business entity and training may give way to sales efforts especially in tougher times, the Training Board maintains that for long term sustainability of an establishment, it is important that managerial and supervisory level staff keep abreast of the changes and developments in the volatile business world, and to acquire updated knowledge, skills, best practices and industry-specific technological know-how for higher effectiveness and efficiency. Managerial and supervisory level staff should be provided with the opportunities to attend conferences, forums, seminars, skills enhancement workshops, chefs demonstrations as well as professional education and training programmes organised by accredited local or overseas training providers for embracing and navigating the bigger environment.

- (iv) It is generally noted from the industry survey that establishments in the hotel industry sector would support their staff to undergo training will decrease by 10.09% in the number of employees planned for training in 2016 over 2015. However, it was noted that training planned for employees has the largest increase in language skills training (+15.5%) with English being accorded higher priority than Putonghua. Trade skills training (+2.21%) ranks second in the overall increase of planned training activities. Employers ranked seminar/workshop as the most preferred mode of training, followed by evening mode of training. The positive inclination for investing resources in employee training will assist Hong Kong to groom and retain talents for sustaining its position as Asia's World City benefiting the hotel industry. The Training Board reminds training providers that language training should be work functional so that the course participants will become well-versed with languages and communications skills which are readily transferrable to the work place.
- (v) To assist in promoting Hong Kong's hospitable image and quality service culture, the Training Board urges hotel employers' commitment in supporting the training function to enhance the customer service skills in receiving the different mix of business and leisure visitors. Training on languages and cultures of the visitors mix will deem essential for the operational staff for upgrading their communications skills and language proficiency in English and Putonghua, plus other Chinese dialects but not limited to the language of target markets, such as Korean and Japanese.
- (vi) To cope with the fast evolving industry and the challenging external environment, the Training Board suggests that lifelong learning is necessary for in-service personnel. The Training Board endorses continuous learning as a means for personal development and enhancing the overall manpower quality of the industry. Employers should encourage their employees to make use of various Government funded training initiatives such as the Continuing Education Fund, Skills Upgrading Scheme (SUS) Plus, Employees Retraining Fund; Out-Centre-Courses Scheme and New Technology Training Scheme administered by the VTC. Course participants should be advised to enrol with those accredited course providers whose training courses are in tandem with the latest industry developments.

- (vii) The Training Board indicates that despite recent shortfalls in the hospitality industry, Hong Kong has plausible potential to upkeep herself as a preferred destination for business and leisure arrivals. It is every citizen's responsibility to uphold the friendly and hospitality image to visitors. The Government should therefore educate the public on the importance of the hospitality industry which serves to enhance employability and also contributes to the overall economy.
- (viii) The Training Board is of the opinion that the HKSAR Government should continue to support the industry and professional training institutions in designing and implementing professional vocational education and training programmes so that the learning outcomes best match the industry requirements and expectations. Quality human capital is always the key to economic expansion, jobs creation and sustainable development. To groom future manpower for the industry, the Training Board suggests that the Government should divert more resources to subsidize industry partnership training programmes jointly conducted by hotel establishments and training institutions. Industrial attachment opportunities for students of vocational and professional education and training programmes are necessary to ensure a smooth transition from study to employment. Integrated structured apprenticeship training programmes provide students with opportunities to apply and enhance their skills and knowledge learnt during training in a real-life organisational context. Furthermore, they can contribute to the establishment in view of the tight manpower situation as well. These collaborations with articulation pathways and clear career goals appear plausible in attracting a consistent supply of new entrants for the hotel industry which is facing labour shortages and ageing workforce.
- (ix) It is always the matter of a small and extra step that wows a guest. Hoteliers recognise the importance of guest experience and not only want to anticipate guests' needs but to excel their expectations. It is therefore important that real-life guest services should be emphasised in the training to students of hotel studies, ranging from front to back of the house in order to create a total experience for the guests. As a result of social changes and education reform, the aptitude, attitude and expectations of the new generations workforce may be different to those of their predecessors. The Training Board is of the view that since the entry requirements of the hotel industry is generally high, there happens to be a mismatch in the expectations between the young graduates and the industry. It is the unique work nature and call for duty that count and matter most in the hotel and related business. It should also be conveyed to students that in order to succeed in the industry, personal qualities such as a strong sense of discipline, high regard for service values and willingness to go the extra mile are important factors to be successful in a people-oriented and demanding industry. Vocational and professional education and training institutions could address such needs by enriching personal quality improvement programmes to prepare the readiness of graduates before joining the industry. While having a diverse workforce is ideal, to promote stronger compatibility among employees, training providers should enhance work-integrated modules, which other than consolidating trade-specific knowledge, the facilitation of whole-person development and soft skills, including interpersonal skills, team spirit, problem-solving, analytical thinking, decision making could be developed to meet the practical needs of the working world. Students are able to come across real life problems and seek solutions that are suitable for the situation in which they are employed. The experiences and learning created structured, organized problem-solving oriented learning. It also provides the opportunity for reflection about the professional attitude in different learning spaces and improving behaviour that prepares the graduates to fit into the industry.

- (x) The Training Board acknowledges the rising need for trained manpower supply in view of the efforts of the Government and industry partners in enhancing high spending and overnight visitor arrivals from MICE, business and cruise sectors. The unique and diverse wine and dining experiences of Hong Kong are strongly promoted overseas. Mega events are scheduled throughout the year to reinforce Hong Kong as an events capital of Asia which may bring in-house guests and patrons of various hotel services. Industry training providers are recommended to host programmes with reference to the manpower vacancies and future manpower demands of respective posts. These may include personnel for supporting and operations and management of meetings, conferences, exhibitions, events and the various catering and culinary functions offered by hotels. To ensure the graduate of vocational and professional education and training are work-ready, it is vital that the training institutes are equipped with state-of-the-art training facilities and a pool of qualified training staff. Additional government funding for fulfilling the aforementioned training initiatives is highly recommended by the Training Board.
- (xi) The Training Board is of the opinion that providing more opportunities for students and in-service practitioners to participate in trade-specific activities and international skills competitions enables further expansion of their global vision and unlocking of greater potentials. It is important to develop our young hoteliers as well as in-service practitioners with values, skills and knowledge to create, analyse and to solve problems with an international perspective. Overseas exchange programmes enable holistic exposure to new skills, global mind-set and perspectives; participants will have a good chance to understand different cultures and lifestyles, and assist in enhancing their language skills and interpersonal skills which the industry strongly requires. By exchanging knowledge, skills and techniques with their industry counterparts locally and overseas, best practices can be shared among local industry personnel whereby total service quality standard could be raised.
- (xii) To attract youngsters in choosing hotel as a career, the Training Board encourages industry practitioners to participate in Career Days, School Talks and similar school activities to introduce the work nature and bright career prospects of the industry to students, teaching staff and parents. These activities serve as effective communication platforms for exchanging information and expectations between the industry and the prospective entrants to the industry. Exemplary graduates of vocational and professional education and training programmes and industry achievers strengthen the interest level of secondary students in entering the hotel industry and choosing relevant pre-employment training and education.

- (xiii) Work-life balance is highly regarded by employees nowadays, especially among the younger generations. Industry employers are encouraged to consider appropriate measures in retaining employees, such as enhancing working conditions, allowing higher flexibility in work schedules and holiday arrangements. Furthermore, providing a clear and practicable career development path and succession planning for potential staff, extending appropriate care and attention to staff is important for improving staff morale under a tight manpower working environment. Training for coaching, leading, motivating employees of multi-generations will therefore be required.
- (xiv) To maximise profits it is necessary that guest loyalty should be enhanced. The Internet of Things (IoT) is shaping the hospitality industry to improve guest experience. Big data and data mining are areas that hoteliers should look at to improve connection with guests and enhancing guest services. Investing in the right tools and people to collect and analyse that data and how to apply it to generate customer satisfaction and subsequently profits is where the true value lies. Investments in hardware and software systems, data mining programs, communications equipment, and skilled personnel to operate and manage these new technologies will be required for enhancing guest satisfaction and hotel operations efficiency.
- (xv) Mobile technology provides a close and immediate relationship with hotel guests and potential customers. Increased activities on mobile devices translates to bookings, incremental revenues and can also generate customer satisfaction and loyalty. Since mobile is so important to millennials, hotels need to approach mobile by thinking the strategical approach for building long-term relationship. Customer opinions and word-of-mouth play a high importance in driving hotel business. Audiences trust the opinions expressed on social media, especially amongst the younger generations. Opinions and experiences are shared real-time as well. By optimising the establishment's positive and appealing image via its social media presence, mobile technology and marketing, the hotel's reputation can be maximised. The Training Board encourages manpower development in this area.
- (xvi) The Training Board notes that the travelling, spending and hospitality service and facilities requirements of the new generations vary from those of the Generations X and before. Training on delivering and managing the expectations of the Millennial guests improves the service and products quality cycle and enhances customer engagement.
- (xvii) With life expectancy, health and educational attainment improving, and coupled with less physically demanding jobs nowadays, more mature persons would be able to stay longer in the labour force. The HKSAR Government is highly supportive of friendly employment practices for mature persons. This group of veterans can share their rich work experiences, knowledge and skills with the new generations which serve as part of the coaching and training functions of the establishment. Furthermore, merits of mature employees, amongst others, include commitment, loyalty and lower turnover, thus assist in alleviating manpower shortage problem in the industry. Training and retraining opportunities for mature employees to acquire new knowledge to cope with the industry developments and trends.

- (xviii) With an ageing population worldwide, the hotel industry should cater to the senior market as well. An age-friendly and barrier-free environment with modified products and services which are based on the needs and likes of this group is to be incorporated into hotel facilities. Funding for research and development catering for these purposes should be provided for the training and education programmes of hotel studies.
- (xix) The Training Board will continue to support conferences, forums and experience-sharing seminars/workshops for the practitioners in the industry.

SECTION I

INTRODUCTION

The Training Board

1.1 The Hotel, Catering and Tourism Training Board of the VTC is appointed by the HKSAR Government to be responsible for, among other duties, assessing the manpower situation and training needs of the hospitality industry and recommending to the VTC the development of training facilities to meet the demand for trained manpower. The membership list and terms of reference of the Training Board and its Working Party on the 2015 Hotel Industry Manpower Survey are given in Appendices 1 to 3.

The Manpower Survey

1.2 In pursuance of its terms of reference, the Training Board conducted the Hotel Industry Manpower Survey during the period from 13th October to 13th November 2015 to collect up-to-date manpower information on the principal jobs of the hotel industry. The Survey was carried out with the assistance of the C&SD. A Manpower Survey Report was published in the second quarter of 2016 by the Training Board in which conclusions and recommendation of the manpower survey findings were released.

1.3 The Training Board conducted the manpower survey with the following objectives:

- (i) to assess the manpower and training needs of principal jobs of the hotel industry;
- (ii) to project the manpower growth of the hotel industry; and
- (iii) to recommend measures to meet the manpower demand and training needs at the managerial / professional, supervisory / technician, craft / operative and administrative and other supporting levels.

Method of Survey

1.4 The fieldwork took place from 13th October to 13th November 2015 with follow-up cases completed in February 2016.

1.5 Questionnaires with explanatory notes and job descriptions were sent to the sampled hotels two weeks before the survey.

1.6 Survey interviewing officers from the C&SD visited the sampled hotels to ensure proper collection of information. The completed questionnaires were checked, coded and where necessary verified with the respondents. The survey data were then processed and tabulated by the C&SD.

1.7 The collected data were treated in strict confidence. Only aggregate information without reference to individual organizations would be published.

Scope of the Survey

1.8 The survey had a full coverage of the listed 244 hotel establishments and 52 Chinese restaurants operated by hotels in the Central Register of Establishments of the C&SD. The two main HSIC branches of the industry are as follows:

Branch 1 : Hotels (HSIC 5501)
244 establishments

Branch 2: Chinese Restaurants Operated by Hotels (HSIC 561109-561111)
52 establishments

1.9 The following information on full-time staff was collected from the survey:

- (i) the number of employees at the time of the survey;
- (ii) employers' 12-month forecast of the total number of employees by September 2016;
- (iii) the number of existing vacancies;
- (iv) the number of employees under training;
- (v) the average monthly income of employees; and
- (vi) employers' views on the preferred education, training mode and training period of employees by job level.

1.10 In addition, the following information on part-time staff was also included in the survey:

- (i) the number of employees at the time of the survey; and
- (ii) the average income of employees by monthly, daily or hourly rate.

Analysis of the Response

1.11 Out of the 296 establishments surveyed, 189 completed and returned the questionnaires and there were 35 refusal cases. The effective response rate was 86.2%.

Manpower Assessment Procedure

1.12 The method of assessment consists of essentially the following steps:

- (i) collect up-to-date information on manpower situation by major job level;
- (ii) analyse the survey data; and
- (iii) project the manpower supply and demand of the hotel industry.

Definition of Employees

1.13 “Employees” refers to those working full-time (i.e. at least 4 weeks a month, and not less than 18 hours in each week) under the payroll of the establishment. These include proprietors and partners working full-time for the establishment but exclude those working in branch offices of the organization.

1.14 “Part-time” employees may be employed on an hourly (or per job), daily, or monthly basis.

Presentation of Findings

1.15 A summary of the survey findings is presented in Section II. The Training Board’s conclusions will be set out in Section III and its recommendations in Section IV.

SECTION II

SUMMARY OF SURVEY FINDINGS

Number of Persons Employed

2.1 The survey reveals that as at September 2015, a total of 37 154 persons were employed in the hotel industry as compared to 36 759 in 2013, representing an increase of 395 (1.07%). Their distribution by job level is as follows:

New Recruits in the Past 12 Months

2.10 Employers reported that they had recruited 4 498 new employees in the past 12 months. The largest number of recruits was found in the craft / operative levels (3 288 or 73.1% of total number of new recruits). The distribution of the number of new recruits by job level is presented in Figure 2.10 below:

Preferred Years of Relevant Experience

2.12 The majority of employers reported that 34.8% of their employees possessed 1 to less than 3 years of experience, 15.3% possessed 3 to less than 5 years of experience, and 9.8% possessed 5 years to 10 years of experience. It should be noted that only 5.3% of employees possessed no previous experience. The number of employees by average years of hotel industry experience before occupying the post are presented in Figure 2.12 below:-

(%)* As percentage of the total number employed in the industry

2.14 The “total monthly income” includes basic salary, overtime pay, cost of living allowance, meal allowance, commission and bonus. Tables 4-7 of Appendix 5 show the income distribution by job level. The majority of employees earned a total monthly income $40,001 or above for managerial / professional level, from $15,001 to $20,000 for supervisory / technician level, and from $10,001 to $15,000 for all remaining levels which include craft / operative / administrative and others levels of employees. Since this is not an income survey, the information obtained is for cross-reference purpose only.

Income Distribution of Part-Time Employees

2.15 Tables 2.15 (a) - (c) show the demand and income distribution of part-time employees in September 2015, as reported by the employers, on an hourly, daily and monthly fee basis. The survey indicated that a total of 1 928 part-time employees were hired by the hotel industry as at September 2015.

2.17 As reported by employers, improvement in skills sets on service attitude and customer service is required for the employees at supervisory / technician and craft / operative job levels. Further, upgrading on supervisory techniques and leadership skills is required for managerial / professional. Also enhancement on Sales and Marketing skills is required for administrative and others job levels. Details are shown at Table 18 of Appendix 5.

2.18 The survey findings shown that 21.3% of the employers intended to purchase training from an outside training provider for their staff in the coming 12 months. For details please refer to Table 20 at Appendix 5.

Priority Accorded to Mode of Training By Employers

2.19 From employers' feedback, seminar / workshop was ranked as the most preferred mode of training whereas evening mode of training was ranked as the least preferred. Details of the priorities were shown in Table 2.19:

SECTION III

CONCLUSIONS

3.1 In 2015, global economic activity remained subdued. Growth in emerging market and developing economies declined for the fifth consecutive year, while a modest recovery continued in advanced economies. Since the start of 2016, the global economic climate has continued to be unsteady, marked by increasing risks, amid the modest and patchy economic growth of advanced economies, downward pressures on emerging markets and heightened geopolitical tension. The US Federal Reserve Board started an interest rate increase in late 2015, but the central banks of the Eurozone and Japan have maintained their quantitative easing policies and adopted negative interest rate measures. The divergent monetary policies are causing volatility in the international financial markets and capital flows. Emerging economies will be under the dual pressure of falling commodity prices and suppressed financial markets. The Mainland's economy will also face downward pressure. Global growth is projected at 3.4% in 2016 and 3.6% in 2017. Growth in advanced economies is projected to rise by 0.2 percentage point in 2016 to 2.1%. Overall activity remains resilient in the U.S.A. In the Euro area, stronger private consumption is supported by easy financial conditions. Nevertheless, the European economy is expected to remain weak and high unemployment rates will prevail. For some European countries, the influx of refugees and the aftermath of refugees may hurt their own economics. Japan is expected to firm in 2016, on the back of fiscal support and lower oil prices. Growth in China is expected to slow to 6.3% in 2016 and 6.0% in 2017, primarily reflecting weaker investment growth as the economy continues to rebalance. India and the rest of emerging Asia are generally projected to continue growing at a robust pace, although with some countries facing strong headwinds from China's economic rebalancing and global manufacturing weakness. (Sources: WEO UPDATE, An update of the key WEO projections, International Monetary Fund, 19 January 2016; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTb Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016; The 2016-17 Budget, Speech by the Financial Secretary, moving the Second Reading of the Appropriation Bill 2016, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016.)

For global tourism, 2015 marked the 6th consecutive year of above-average growth, with international arrivals increasing by 4% or more every year since the post-crisis year of 2010. International tourist arrivals grew by 4.4% in 2015 to reach a total of 1,184 million in 2015. Some 50 million more tourists (overnight visitors) travelled to international destinations around the world in 2015 as compared to 2014. Demand was strong overall, though with mixed results across individual destinations due to unusually strong exchange rate fluctuations, the drop in oil prices and other commodities which increased disposable income in importing countries but weakened demand in exporters, as well as increased safety and security concerns.

Growth in advanced economy destinations (+5%) exceeded that of emerging economies (+4%), boosted by the solid results of Europe (+5%). By region, Europe, the Americas, Asia and the Pacific all recorded around 5% growth in 2015. Arrivals to the Middle East increased by 3% while in Africa, limited data available, points to an estimated 3% decrease, mostly due to weak results in North Africa, which accounts for over one third of arrivals in the region.

Results from the UNWTO Confidence Index remain largely positive for 2016, though at a slightly lower level as compared to the previous two years. Based on the current trend and this outlook, UNWTO projects international tourist arrivals to grow by 4% worldwide in 2016. By region, growth is expected to be stronger in Asia and the Pacific (+4% to +5%) and the Americas (+4% to +5%), followed by Europe (+3.5% to +4.5%). The projections for Africa (+2% to +5%) and the Middle East (+2% to +5%) are positive, though with a larger degree of uncertainty and volatility.

A few leading source markets had driven tourism expenditure in 2015 supported by a strong currency and economy. Among the world's top source markets, the Mainland China, with double-digit growth in expenditure every year since 2004, continues to lead global outbound travel, benefitting Asian destinations such as Japan and Thailand, as well as the United States and various European destinations. By contrast, expenditure from the previously very dynamic source markets of the Russian Federation and Brazil declined significantly, reflecting the economic constraints in both countries and the depreciation of the Rouble and the Real against virtually all other currencies.

As for the traditional advanced economy source markets, expenditure from the United States (+9%), the world's second largest source market, and the United Kingdom (+6%) was boosted by a strong currency and rebounding economy. Spending from Germany, Italy and Australia grew at a slower rate (all at +2%), while demand from Canada and France was rather weak. (Source: "International tourist arrivals up 4% reach a record 1.2 billion in 2015", UNWTO, 18 January 2016.)

Airline CFOs and heads of cargo reported in late 2015 that they had become more cautious about future growth, but responses indicated expectations for similar growth rates to recent years. Though the economic growth forecast for 2016 has been lowered, the consensus remains that 2016 should be slightly better than 2015, as continued low energy costs boost consumer incomes and spending. (Source: Economic Performance of the Airline Industry, 2015 End-year report, IATA Economics, 10 December 2015.)

3.2 Export performance of the Asian region was hit by the global economic setback and highly volatile financial markets in 2015. Inbound tourism was weak and visitor arrivals to Hong Kong dropped by 8% in the fourth quarter, down by 2.5% for the whole year.

Although the investment atmosphere turned more cautious, local consumption as well as expenditures on infrastructure and private construction projects remained resilient. These, together with the stimulus effect of the relief measures introduced in last year's Hong Kong budget, led to an overall economic growth of 2.4%. This is the fourth consecutive year that our economic growth was lower than the annual average of 3.4% over the past ten years.

Local consumption and investor sentiment have been dented by concerns over the uncertainties associated with the US interest rate increases and the dimmer global economic outlook, the lull in external trade and the slowdown in inbound tourism. The pressure may spill over into the job market and business operation of enterprises. The value of total exports of goods and the number of visitor arrivals in Hong Kong have both recorded a year-on-year decline since mid-2015, and the fall is likely to be more severe in 2016. GDP growth in real terms at 1 – 2% in 2016, lower than last year's growth.

Given the subdued global commodity prices, imported inflation is expected to be relatively mild. The headline inflation rate for 2016 will be 2.3%, with the underlying inflation rate at 2%. (Source: The 2016-17 Budget, Speech by the Financial Secretary, moving the Second Reading of the Appropriation Bill 2016, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016.) The medium-term outlook for the Hong Kong economy will still be restrained by the below-trend growth of the global economy under the "new normal" after the Global Financial Crisis. However, deepening economic integration with the Mainland China enables extensive growth opportunities, via varied economic activities, particularly in view of the National 13th Five-Year Plan and the “Belt and Road” initiative. Taking into account the challenges in the external environment and on the domestic front, the economy is expected to attain a moderate trend growth of 3% per annum from 2017 to 2020. (Source: 2015 Economic Background and 2016 Prospects, Hong Kong Economy, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016.)

During 2010-2014, visitor arrivals to Hong Kong registered an annual average growth of 15.5%. However, being affected by a volatile global economy and other macro-economic conditions, visitor arrivals to Hong Kong registered a decrease of 2.5% to 59.31 million in 2015. Overnight visitor arrivals amounted to 26.69 million, 3.9% less than in 2014. Among them, visitors from the Mainland China recorded a decrease of 5.7% while those from non-Mainland markets remained more or less the same as in 2014. The subdued performance of inbound tourism indeed mirrored largely the slowdown in the growth of Mainland visitors. Reasons such as relaxed visa requirements and favourable exchange rates in other popular tourist destinations might have resulted in tourist diversion from Hong Kong. This, coupled with the “one trip per week” measure for Shenzhen permanent residents has caused a drop in Mainland visitor arrivals. Apart from external factors, some recent incidents in Hong Kong are causing concern. These included a handful of people choosing to express their views and political demands by using unwelcomed tactics against Mainland visitors. Furthermore, problems arising from coerced shopping have been plaguing the tourism sector. (Sources: Press Releases, LegCo Secretariat releases Research Brief on "Hong Kong's tourism industry", Legislative Council Secretariat, The HKSAR Government, 5 August 2015; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTb Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016; The 2016-17 Budget, Speech by the Financial Secretary, moving the Second Reading of the Appropriation Bill 2016, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016.)

The average achieved hotel room rate in 2015 was HK$1,337 which was a decrease of 9.2% from that of the previous year. The average length of stay of overnight visitors remained at 3.3 nights, same as 2014. Meanwhile, the average hotel room occupancy rate declined by 4 percentage points to 86%. (Sources: Hotel Room Occupancy Report – January 2016, PartnerNet, HKTb, February 2016; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTb Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government February 2016.)

Despite the aforementioned less than favourable situations, Hong Kong’s tourism industry has its own merits. In 2015, Hong Kong climbed two places to 13th in a survey of the competitiveness of the tourism industry in countries around the globe. The rankings measured the competitiveness of 141 countries and economies based on 14 criteria, including business environment, travel and tourism policies, readiness of communication networks, infrastructure quality, and natural resources. The survey conducted every two years by the World Economic Forum, placed Hong Kong fourth in the Asia-Pacific region, behind Australia, which ranked seventh globally, China placed sixth in the Asia-Pacific region, Japan, which made ninth, and Singapore at 11th. (Source: “Hong Kong ranks 13th in tourism competitiveness while China jumps 28 places to 17th”, South China Morning Post, 7 May 2015.)

On TripAdvisor’s top 25 Asian destinations, Hong Kong was ranked sixth, Beijing 10th, Shanghai 17th and Singapore 18th. “Delectable dim sum, floating islands, and a one-of-a-kind skyline are just some unique features of Hong Kong, a 2015 Travelers’ Choice Destination”, TripAdvisor wrote. (Source: “HK bags spot on top travel list”, The Standard, 26 March 2015.)

3.3 Tourism industry is one of the world's largest industries with vast global economic contributions. Our neighbors within the region and destinations around the world are enhancing their tourism developments and stepping up their marketing efforts in drawing incoming visitors for pleasure or business.

Macau has undoubtedly changed significantly in recent years and we are seeing the city transforms from a gaming destination to one with a more diverse range of entertainment and recreation options for guests of all ages. In 2016, other than putting more efforts in developing smart tourism with diversified products, the Macau Tourism Office will develop new tourism products, including the transformation project of Tourism Activities Centre into a theme museum on Macau Grand Prix, revitalization of palafitte on Coloane, feasibility study on launch of leisure cruise tour routes between Macao Peninsula and Taipa/Coloane etc. to attract tourists. (Press Release, "MGTO holds Annual Press Conference Fosters smart tourism and expands international visitor markets Enhances tourism service quality and synergistic effect between tourism, culture and sports", Macao Government Tourism Office, 27 January 2016.)

Singapore has new tourist spots opening up one after another almost every year between 2008 to 2015, including Singapore Flyer, rejuvenated Orchard Road (2009), Integrated Resorts at Marina Bay and Sentosa, Gardens by the Bay, River Safari, and National Gallery Singapore.

In contrast, South Korea has not launched any large-scale new tourism infrastructure projects in recent years. Indeed, the top 10 most popular tourist spots in South Korea remained the same during 2011-2015. Nevertheless, South Korea has managed to develop existing scenic locations into a number of new tourist attractions by leveraging on the popularity of Hallyu (Korean Wave). Hallyu tourism features attracting tourists coming to visit the locations used in their favourite Hallyu dramas and movies. For this type of tourism, South Korea does not need to invest in developing large-scale new tourism infrastructure, but just creating new tourist attractions based around well-known drama/movie locations. Immediately after Middle East Respiratory Syndrome (MERS) subsided, South Korea Launched large-scale marketing campaigns to revive its tourism industry. In 2016, the Korean Won is expected to drop further, and designated duty-free shops in-town will be allowed to offer instant tax refund, which will offer greater incentive to spend. All these factors will attract more visitors to South Korea and stimulate local spending.

The significant depreciation of the Japanese Yen in 2015 made Japan a more appealing destination. In 2016, the relatively weak Yen and the possible relaxation of tax-refund limits are expected to boost Japan's inbound travel and tourists' spending.

In view of macro-economic environment, the Euro depreciated in 2015 making European countries more appealing to visitors. Other than the aforementioned regions, Malaysia, Indonesia, Taiwan, the U.S.A., the U.K., Australia and Canada have relaxed visa requirements or simplified their visa application procedures for Mainland China's visitors. (Sources: "Marriott openings highlight Macau growth", Asia-Pacific IHIF Hotel Investment News, June 2015; Hong Kong's tourism industry, Research Brief, Issue No. 6 2014 – 2015, Research Office, Legislative Council Secretariat, The HKSAR Government, August 2015; (Press Release, "MGTO holds Annual Press Conference Fosters smart tourism and expands international visitor markets Enhances tourism service quality and synergistic effect between tourism, culture and sports", Macao Government Tourism Office, 27 January 2016.) Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTb Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)

3.4 In 2015, Mainland China continued to be Hong Kong's largest visitor source market with 45.84 million arrivals despite there was a 3% decrease over 2014 in total arrivals, and a decrease of 5.7% in overnight visitor arrivals. The drop of Mainland visitor arrivals to Hong Kong did not come unexpected in the light of a range of external and internal factors. Other than the depreciation of currencies and relaxed visa requirements in the aforementioned destinations which drawn Mainland visitors to those places, the slowdown of economic growth in the Mainland also affected consumers' spending pattern and their desire to travel. Furthermore, protests against parallel traders and a few unfortunate incidents directed against Mainland visitors impaired some Mainlanders' impression towards Hong Kong. In addition, in response to the public's views and following the HKSAR Government's conveyance of different opinions of the community to the Central Government, the Mainland announced on 13 April 2015 that the issuance of "multiple-entry" Individual Visit Endorsements for permanent residents of Shenzhen was stopped and replaced with the "one trip per week" Individual Visit Endorsements with immediate effect. (Sources: Press Release, "Statement by the HKTB on the Adjustment of the Policy on Multiple-entry Individual Visit Endorsements for Shenzhen Residents by the Mainland Authorities", HKTB, 13 April 2015; LC Paper No. CB(4)483/15-16/03, Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 20 January 2016; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016; Press Release, "LCQ10: Measures to boost tourism and assist tourism sector", Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 4 May 2016).

3.5 Arrivals from long-haul markets in 2015 was little changed as compared with 2014, with the U.S.A. as the best performer achieving a 4.5% growth whilst arrivals from Europe slightly dropped by 1.8%.

For short-haul markets, total arrivals declined by 1.0% in 2015 though satisfactory growth was recorded for Thailand (+9.1%) and the Phillipines (+10.9%). India and Vietnam also recorded healthy growth at 3% and 7.2% respectively. Reasons for the decline might be attributed to the Hong Kong dollar which is pegged to the strong US dollar and has resulted in the weakening of other currencies including Japan, South Korea, Indonesia, Singapore and Malaysia, thereby affecting arrivals from these countries. The weakening of the Yen and the Won also attracted visitors to Japan and South Korea respectively. The outbreak of MERS caused a plunge in Korean arrivals from June to September 2015 as well.

Having taken into account the factors in the macro-environment including risk and opportunities, tourism-related policies, developments in visitor sources markets, and forecasts by international organisations, the HKTB projected that there would be a decrease of 1.8% to about 58.27 million total visitor arrivals in 2016. Among them, the total number of Mainland arrivals is projected to decrease by 3.2%, while the arrivals from non-Mainland are expected to increase by 3%. (Sources: Press Releases, "LCQ5: Tourism promotion projects and programmes", Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 27 January 2016; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)

3.6 With growing numbers of Mainland residents visiting Hong Kong in recent years, Hong Kong has encountered problems with receiving capacity and parallel trading activities. Based on 2014 visitor arrival figures, assuming the mode of visitors coming to Hong Kong remains unchanged, the implementation of the "one trip per week" measure could reduce the number of visitor arrivals under multiple-entry endorsements by about 30%, to about

4.6 million. The HKSAR Government believes the new measure can curb parallel trading activities by those who come to Hong Kong multiple times a week or a day. It will also lessen the impact of the substantial increase in visitor arrivals on affected districts in Hong Kong. The next important priority is to seize the opportunity to re-establish Hong Kong's positive image as a hospitable city to ensure the sustainable and orderly development of Hong Kong's tourism industry. While the city would continue to welcome visitors from all over the world including those from the Mainland, it will strive to attract more overnight visitors who generally spend more in Hong Kong. (Source: "One-trip-per-week cap welcomed", Information Services Department, The HKSAR Government, 13 April 2015.) After the rapid growth over the past 10 years, Hong Kong's tourism industry has entered a consolidation period. In view of the change in the mix and spending pattern of visitors to Hong Kong, coupled with the competition posed by neighbouring travel destinations, the HKSAR Government and industry partners consider it necessary that Hong Kong's tourism industry should not merely focus on the growth in tourist numbers, but should move towards diversified and quality-driven high value-added services. The goal is to strive for a balanced, healthy, and long-term development with more diversified visitor source markets and to attract more high-spending overnight visitors to Hong Kong. (Source: Press Releases, "LCQ5: Tourism promotion projects and programmes", Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 27 January 2016.) To do so, there are suggestions that Hong Kong should attract more inbound business travelers coming for meetings, conventions, exhibitions and other commercial events, and take effective measures to enable the further growth of the cruise tourism. Business travel is an important segment of the tourism industry for the benefits it brings to the host city. These include the commercial activities generated by the organization of exhibitions and conventions, as well as the spending of participants on transportation, accommodation and shopping during their stay in the host city. In addition, business travel is not as sensitive as leisure tourism to seasonality factors since meetings, conventions and exhibitions can take place all year round. The business travelers can help the host city by taking up some of the empty rooms available during off-peak seasons. Other intangible benefits brought by business travel include promoting the international image of the host city and network building of local businesses. (Source: Hong Kong's tourism industry, Research Brief, Issue No. 6 2014-2015, Research Office,

In the face of the relatively strong Hong Kong dollar and the various currencies in the region which have been depreciated against the Hong Kong dollar, the cost for organising MICE events in Hong Kong was relatively higher than in other regional destinations. Overnight MICE arrivals decreased 5.2% compared to 2014. However, it is worthwhile to note that overnight Mainland business arrivals to Hong Kong in 2015 rose 11.4% due to vigorous commercial activities between the Mainland and Hong Kong, and a growth of 3.3% in total business arrivals to 8.03 million, of which overnight business arrivals increased by 4.3%. (Source: Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)

The new Silk Road Economic Belt and 21st Century Maritime Silk Road programmes of the Mainland China, known as "One Belt, One Road", now offer tremendous growth prospects. The initiatives look to expand the Mainland's transcontinental connectivity and promote economic, political and cultural development among countries spanning three continents in Southeast Asia, Africa and Europe. With Hong Kong's long-standing and unique role as the "super-connector" between the vast Mainland Chinese market and the rest of the world, Hong Kong is poised to benefit from this new framework for organising multinational economic development. Furthermore, the scale of tourism will be expanded and it will be made more convenient to apply for tourist visas in countries along the Belt and Road. (Sources: Press Releases, “SCED’s speech at gala dinner in Berlin”, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 2 June 2015; Maritime Insight Issue 1 June 2015.)

3.7 Tourism contributes 5% to our GDP and employs 270,000* people. (* Figure according to the four key Industries provided by the C&SD which included employment of (A) Inbound tourism covering retail trade, accommodation services, food & beverage services, cross-boundary passenger transport services and others; and (B) Outbound tourism covering travel agency, reservation services and related activities, and cross-boundary passenger transport services.) Due to the changing spending patterns among visitors, strong Hong Kong dollar and slowdown of economic growth in the Mainland, spending on retail and hotel accommodation recorded a considerable drop. TEAIT decreased 7.0% year-on-year to HK$333.7 billion. As compared to the figures of 2014 with overnight visitor PCS at HK$7,235, there was a decrease of 9.1%. Meanwhile, visitor satisfaction remained unchanged at 8.2 points on a 10-point scale. It is projected that the total visitor arrivals in 2016 will drop by 1.8% while the TEAIT and PCS will drop by 1.6% and 4% respectively. (Source: Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.) The HKSAR Government will join hands with industry partners in pursuing tourism product diversification and attracting high spending arrivals in view of the change in the mix and spending pattern of visitors to Hong Kong. (Source: LC Paper No. CB(4)483/15-16(03), Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, January 2016.) To ensure that Hong Kong continues to evolve as a preferred destination for tourists and business-related arrivals, the HKSAR Government has been investing to enrich the tourism portfolio. The new and enhanced tourism infrastructure and attractions will create jobs, promote economic activities and facilitates the continuous healthy development of the industry. According to information provided by the HKSAR Government and various sources, major tourism and transportation projects and initiatives being implemented and under planning included:

- (i) In order to attract diversified visitors, Hong Kong would expand the capacity to capture potential arrivals and divert tourists to different regions in Hong Kong. Plans have been put forward for the development of the Lantau Island into a Hong Kong’s new commercial hub, as well as a tourist haven. There will be a development of 14 recreation and tourism areas mostly to the south. An adventure park was to be built in Sunny Bay with facilities such as indoor surfing and skydiving. The development of a tourism node at Kai Tak as part of the Kai Tak Fantasy project is also under planning by the HKSAR Government. It is a planned tourism, leisure and entertainment destination for public enjoyment, which will create synergy with various “Energizing Kowloon East” initiatives and the planned hotel developments nearby. (Sources: Press Release, “Economic Development Commission holds ninth meeting”, Information Services Department, The HKSAR Government, 27 November 2015; “Disneyland expansion part of massive Lantau land reclamation project to house 700,000 more by 2030”, South China Morning Post, 11 January 2016.)
- (ii) To celebrate the 10th anniversary, Hong Kong Disneyland Resort introduced an amazing array of new entertainment in 2015 for guests to enjoy, including a new stage show “Mickey and the Wondrous Book”, a new attraction “Fairy Tale Forest” and new castle video projections blending with the night time fireworks show “Disney in the Stars”. In June 2016, new “Star Wars”-themed offerings, including upgrading of the “Space Mountain” roller coaster ride into the “Hyperspace Mountain” and the “Jedi Training Academy”, have also been launched. The Resort will continue to introduce new initiatives, such as a new themed area based on Marvel’s “Iron Man” franchise and a new hotel with a theme dedicated to the spirit of exploration that will open in end-2016 and early 2017 respectively. In addition, the HKSAR Government is in discussion with The Walt Disney Company for further development of the Hong Kong Disneyland Resort. (Sources: Press Release, “Hong Kong Disneyland Resort to kick off year-long 10th anniversary celebration Resort to honor 10 magical years of growth in Hong Kong with new attractions and entertainment”, Hong Kong Disneyland, 11 September 2015; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTb Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.) The Ocean Park’s new Water World is scheduled for completion in the second half of 2018, together with its first hotel and second hotel to be opened in 2017 and 2020 respectively, these will transform Hong Kong’s People’s Park into a premier international resort destination. (Sources: Press Release, “Appointment of Most Preferred Proponent for the Development of The Fullerton Hotel @ Ocean Park”, Ocean Park, 4 February 2016; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTb Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)

- (iii) To enhance the attractiveness of Lei Yue Mun, the Tourism Commission plans to further improve the facilities along Lei Yue Mun waterfront area. Subject to the completion of a comprehensive Environmental Impact Assessment on the full scope of the project and the funding approval for the project, the construction works is expected to commence in 2017 the earliest for completion by end 2020.
- (iv) In terms of accommodation, HKTb’s statistics showed that the number of hotels by December 2015 was 253 with 73,846 rooms. The estimated number of hotels and rooms supply in 2016 will be 274 and 76,643 respectively. More than 32,000 rooms had been added over the past decade, and it is expected that another 7,200 to come on stream and will amount to around 81,000 rooms by 2017. In this case, the Government has always worked closely with the tourism industry to ensure the timely provision of enough suitable land for hotel and tourism-related development. (Source: Hotel Supply Situation – as at December 2015, PartnerNet, HKTb, February 2016.) The new hotel projects of the two flagship theme parks and the airport’s North Commercial District will come on stream, providing a total of about 2,200 rooms. The Government has also included in the 2016-17 Land Sale Programme three hotel sites within the “hotel belt” along the former Kai Tak Runway. The three sites are expected to provide some 2,100 hotel rooms. (Sources: Press Releases, “SCED’s speaking notes on commerce,

- (v) Around town, for observing the stunning views of the spectacular Hong Kong harbor, there is the Hong Kong Observation Wheel which came into operation in 2014 where tourists can enjoy stunning day and night time views of the spectacular Victoria Harbour. (Source: The Hong Kong Observation Wheel, HKTB, The HKSAR Government.) The new Central Waterfront has become a popular destination for visitors but is also being put to good use for large-scale events such as the annual Wine and Dine Festival which goes from strength to strength. (Source: SCED’s Articles, “Hong Kong continues to evolve as a tourist destination”, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 2 October 2015.) To capitalize on the night vista of Victoria Harbour in promoting tourism, HKTB will continue to launch the Hong Kong Pulse 3D Light Show from 5 to 28 August 2016 and from 25 November to 28 December 2016 to complement the staging of the HKTB’s mega events. Furthermore, the Tourism Commission is planning to rejuvenate “A Symphony of Lights”, a nightly light and sound show.
- (vi) To promote MICE tourism in 2016-17, the HKTB will continue to introduce tailored strategies for the various MICE markets near and far, as well as partnering with professional associations and convention organizers to attract more MICE events with high-spending power visitors to Hong Kong. Short-haul markets include South Korea, the Mainland China, India and Indonesia. The U.S.A. and Europe will be targeted to bring in large-scale or major conventions to Hong Kong. It is envisaged that the aforementioned strategies and efforts will assist in consolidating Hong Kong’s image as the world’s meeting place and upholding the city’s image as Asia’s fair capital. To facilitate the development of the MICE business, the design work for the conference facilities above the proposed Exhibition Station of the Shatin to Central Link is underway. - (vii) As for cruise tourism, promotion efforts will include launching strategic promotion campaign in collaboration with international cruise lines for fly-cruise tourism; and promoting regional collaboration, such as making use of the Asian Cruise Fund to pool together financial incentives of neighbouring ports for developing and marketing cruise products featuring member ports.

In 2016-17, the HKTB will step up partnership with member ports to form an Asia Cruise Alliance, which member ports will promote respective tourism infrastructure and destination appeals to cruise lines for including member ports in their itineraries. - (viii) In order to actively enhance Hong Kong's attractiveness and to bring more diversified experience for tourists, leveraging revitalised historical buildings in the development of cultural and creative tourism has been one of the Government's important directions for strategic development. In recent years, newly developed tourist attractions under this strategy include PMQ, the creative industries landmark transformed from the former Police Married Quarters on Hollywood Road, as well as revitalised historic buildings such as YHA Mei Ho House Youth Hostel, Jao Tsung-I Academy (the former Lai Chi Kok Hospital), etc, which are conserved and revitalized under Development Bureau's "Revitalising Historic Buildings Through Partnership Scheme". The Central Police Station Compound which is now under revitalisation will be opened to the public in end 2016. The building at the site originally known as "Hung Shing Yi Hok" will also be revitalised into the Tai Hang Fire Dragon Heritage Centre, which is expected to commence operation in 2019. (Source: Press Releases, "LCQ18: Regulation of tourism industry", Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 4 November 2015.)
- (ix) Cultural and creative tourism will be further developed by the HKSAR Government. Initiatives which had been launched in 2016 include the "Ani-Com Park@Harbour" "FUN", adjacent to the Golden Bauhinia Square, has opened in May. These initiatives showcase a mix of Hong Kong's history, culture and arts in different ways to give visitors diversified new experiences. The West Kowloon Cultural District and the revitalized Central Police Station Compound will be in the spotlight of cultural tourism. Facilities such as the Xiqu Centre and the M+ museum for visual culture will be successively completed in the coming few years. On the promotion of Hong Kong's local culture, the HKTB has launched the "New Tour Product Development Scheme" since 2012 to encourage the travel trade to develop new tourism products by partly subsidizing the marketing costs. Included are new themed tours which showcase the local living culture, for instance, "Sham Shui Po Foodie Tour" which escorts visitors to sample the local culinary delights and "Hand Made in Hong Kong" which presents the traditional craftsmanship of Hong Kong. The HKTB will continue to run the Scheme, encouraging the trade to capitalize on their creativity and to optimize the use of tourism resources in different districts. (Source: Press Releases, "LCQ18: Regulation of tourism industry", Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 4 November 2015.)
- At the same time, the HKTB launches extensive promotion through various channels, including its website, mobile applications, social media platforms and visitor centres, for actively promoting to overseas visitors the four traditional festivals which are included in the third national list of intangible cultural heritage, namely Yu Lan Festival, Cheung Chau Bun Festival, Tai O Dragon Boat Water Parade and Tai Hang Fire Dragon Dance. (Sources: Press Releases, “LCQ18: Regulation of tourism industry”, Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 4 November 2015; Press Releases, “LCQ5: Tourism promotion projects and programmes”, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 27 January 2016.)

- (x) To reinvent Hong Kong’s tourism image, HKTB has also planned to highlight the edges of Hong Kong’s gourmet culture in future promotion efforts, such as featuring the attractiveness of Hong Kong’s gourmet through international media and inviting Hong Kong chefs to perform at overseas promotion activities of HKTB. (Source: LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(05), Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 22 February 2016.) A food truck pilot scheme which aims to add fun and vibrancy to Hong Kong’s tourist attractions by providing diverse, creative and high quality food options to tourists and the locals, while maintaining the good standard of food hygiene and safety in Hong Kong will be launched by the HKSAR Government. The scheme would be positioned as a tourism project to enhance and complement the existing food landscape in Hong Kong and to bring more specialty gourmet food to tourists and the locals. (Source: LC Paper No. CB(4)481/15-16, Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 15 December 2015.)
- (xi) To maintain optimal service quality, the Hong Kong International Airport needs a third runway to maintain its competitiveness as an aviation hub. The Executive Council endorsed the three-runway plan and asked the Airport Authority to take forward the project which has been planned for completion by 2024. Upon completion, the capacity target for the airport would be 620,000 flights with an additional 30 million passengers each year, i.e. 102 flights per hour, compared to 68 flights in 2015. The airport will then be able to handle 100 million passengers and nine million tonnes of cargo annually in 2030. (Sources: “Third runway plan endorsed”, news.gov.hk, The HKSAR Government, 17 March 2015; Press Releases, “LCQ9: HKIA’s capacity to receive passengers”, Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 8 July 2015; The 2016 – 17 Budget, Speech by the Financial Secretary, moving the Second Reading of the Appropriation Bill 2016, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016.)
- (xii) With enhanced transportation network upon the completion of the XRL planned for the third quarter of 2018, the connectivity between Hong Kong and the Mainland will be further enhanced in the coming few years. This will not only provide Mainland visitors with greater convenience to travel to Hong Kong, but also facilitate travel by overseas visitors to the Mainland via Hong Kong, consolidating Hong Kong’s position as the gateway to the Mainland. Together with the HZMB planned for 2017, the HKTB will establish a co-operation platform with the Zhuhai Municipal Bureau of Culture, Sports and Tourism to pave the way for promoting multi-destination travel to Hong Kong and Zhuhai. (Source: Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, February 2016.) In addition, the South Island line of the Mass Transit Railway which is expected to be completed in late 2016 will further enhance Hong Kong's intra-city transport network and offer visitors greater convenience.

Large-scale infrastructure, including a Tuen Mun-Chek Lap Kok link, HZMB and the third runway of the airport will turn the geographical condition of Lantau from an outlying island to a significant region of Hong Kong with commercial and tourism activities. (Source: "Disneyland expansion part of massive Lantau land reclamation project to house 700,000 more by 2030", South China Morning Post, 11 January 2016.)

- (xiii) In 2016 – 17, the HKTB will continue to strengthen its partnership with destinations in the Pearl River Delta to promote multi-destination itineraries and products featuring Hong Kong, so as to consolidate the city's position as the travel hub in the region. Meanwhile, the HKTB will explore opportunities brought about by the "One Belt, One Road" initiative to boost multi-destination travel, such as collaboration with Guangdong, Macau, Shenzhen and Zhuhai; and strengthen the collaboration with other Asian countries and regions. (Source: Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016 – 17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)

3.8 Other than the aforementioned major tourism and transportation infrastructure projects and initiatives to facilitate tourism growth and economic activities, the HKSAR Government will launch different short-term to long-term measures to reduce industry's cost of operation and promote Hong Kong's attractiveness and competitiveness. These include the waiving of licence fees for industry operators amongst which 2,000 hotels and guest houses will benefit for one year. For the medium-term measures, the HKSAR Government and the industry will jointly expand the scale of major events to be held and to step up publicity for international sports events. To reinvent Hong Kong's tourism image, the HKTB will formulate a new image of our tourism niches, launch a new round of publicity for short-haul market and step up publicity in the Mainland for quality and honest tours. (Sources: 2015 Economic Background and 2016 Prospects, Hong Kong Economy, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016; [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(05)], Legislative Council, The HKSAR Government, 17 February 2016.)

Hong Kong's events calendar was packed with exciting offerings throughout 2015. These included the innovative Hong Kong Pulse 3D Light Show and the inaugural Hong Kong Cyclothon in October 2015. Favourites such as the Hong Kong Tennis Open, Hong Kong Open Golf Championship, Hong Kong Dragon Boat Carnival, the Rugby Sevens, the Wine and Dine Festival and the Hong Kong Arts Festival continued to enhance their appeal and attracted visitors from around the globe. (Source: SCED's Articles, "Hong Kong continues to evolve as a tourist destination", Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, 2 October 2015.)

Different spectacular mega events will be held in town as well to attract more high-spending overnight visitors to Hong Kong, thereby bringing about more business opportunities for sectors including tourism, retail, food and beverage, hotels, etc. A series of sports mega events will take centre stage including the Rugby Sevens, the Hong Kong Cyclothon, etc., the FIA Formula E Championship will be held in the New Central Harbourfront for the first time in October 2016 as the first stop globally for the 2016/17 season.

Events such as the International Chinese New Year Parade, the Hong Kong Dragon Boat Carnival and the Hong Kong Wine and Dine Festival have gradually built up reputations. The HKTb will continue to organise more large-scale mega events and strengthen promotion efforts. The Mega Events Fund, operating under a two-tier system till end March 2017, aims to promote tourism, raise the profile of Hong Kong internationally and promote Hong Kong as an events capital of Asia by providing funding support to attract more mega arts, cultural, sports and entertainment events to be held in Hong Kong. (Sources: [LC Paper No. CB(4)112/15-16(01)], LegCo Panel on Economic Development, Meeting of 26 October 2015, Legislative Council, 26 October 2015; Press Releases, “LCQ5: Tourism promotion projects and programmes”, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 27 January 2016; Mega Events Fund official website [<http://www.tourism.gov.hk/english/mef/mef.html>].)

In September 2015, the HKSAR Government announced the setting up of a HK$10 million “Matching Fund for Overseas Tourism Promotion by Tourist Attractions” to provide local attractions with dollar-for-dollar subsidies to enhance their overseas promotions. Between November 2015 and March 2016, the approved 10 local attractions including museums resort, theme parks, observation sights etc. rolled out promotions in 12 visitor source markets near and afar. The aim is to attract visitors and motivating them to extend their stay to benefit both the attractions and related sectors of the tourism industry. The Scheme will be continued in 2016. (Source: Press Release, “Government Matching Fund Scheme Subsidies 10 Attractions To Market 69 Promotions In The Mainland And Overseas”, HKTb, 10 November 2015.)

As regards the regulatory framework, the market development and mode of operation of the tourism sector have been evolving in recent years. For the sustainable and healthy development of the tourism industry in Hong Kong, the HKSAR Government, after public consultation and careful consideration of various views received, has announced that an independent statutory body, the Travel Industry Authority (TIA), will be established to take over the licensing and regulatory functions of the Travel Agents Registry and TIC. The targets of regulation will include travel agents, tourist guides and tour escorts. The HKSAR Government is pressing ahead with drafting the new legislation for the establishment of the TIA and implementing the new regulatory framework of the tourism sector, with a view to introducing the bill into the Legislative Council within the current term of the HKSAR Government. (Source: Press Releases, “LCQ18: Regulation of tourism industry” Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 4 November 2015; and “LCQ8: Measures to combat unlicensed travel agents and tourist guides not holding any Tourist Guide Pass”, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 25 May 2016.) With the strong determination of the HKSAR Government and the industry operators to uphold one of the four economic pillars of Hong Kong, though facing external and internal challenges currently, Hong Kong’s tourism will continue to develop in the long run.

Implications on Manpower

3.9 For 2015, the labour market remained largely stable in overall terms, with the unemployment rate staying low at 3.3% in 2015. The average number of unemployed persons rose slightly by 1,500 over 2014 to 128,700. Comparing 2015 with 2014, more apparent increases were seen in tourism-related sectors such as accommodation services (up 1.1 percentage points). Labour demand showed some signs of easing, particularly in segments more affected by the sluggish trade performance and the sustained weak trend in inbound tourism. Wages and earnings attained real improvements as a result of the upward adjustment of the SMW rate since May 2015. (Source: 2015 Economic Background and 2016 Prospects, Hong Kong Economy, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016.) From the statistical figures, it reveals that the majority of the vacancies lies with the craft/operational level with the largest number for the positions of Room Attendant/ Room Services Butler/ Floor Attendant/ Housekeeping Clerk/ Order-taker/ Coordinator (Housekeeping).

3.10 As aforementioned, the average achieved hotel room rate in 2015 was lower when comparing to 2014 and the occupancy rate maintained above 80%. Despite the shortfall of industry performance, there was no significant reduction in overall industry manpower which remained relatively stable at around 37,000. Natural attrition, resignations due to varied reasons and competition for staff by new and existing hotels resulted in a consistent surge for employees. It was noted that job vacancies would take a longer period to fill. According to the 2022 Labour Forecast conducted by the HKSAR Government, the manpower demand on accommodation industry will raise by an average of 2.5% on a yearly basis.

3.11 In view of the various aforementioned efforts to boost tourism by the HKSAR Government and industry partners, together with the continuous development of Mainland China and our neighboring areas, more job opportunities are expected to be created in the future and an ongoing demand of trained quality manpower to benefit from the business opportunities is expected in the coming years.

- (i) According to the Hotel Supply Situation Report, there will be an increase of around 53 new hotels with 10,236 additional rooms to be completed between end of 2015 and end of 2019. (Source: Hotel Supply Situation – as at December 2015, PartnerNet, HKTb, February 2016.) Based on a staff to room ratio of 0.65:1, approximately 6,650 new vacancies will be created in the aforementioned period for these new hotels. These new hotel projects indicated a positive projection of potential visitors who may travel to Hong Kong in future years where a consistent supply of trained hotel manpower is required to support the industry.
- (ii) A more diversified portfolio of arrivals is expected. The HKTb will allocate 74% of the total marketing budget, which is the regular subvention provided by the Government, to overseas markets in 2016-17, of which about 70% will be invested to attract visitors from Taiwan, Japan, South Korea, Southeast Asia, India and the U.S.A. The remaining 26% will be invested in the Mainland market, 90% of which will go to the non-Guangdong areas. To address the concerns of consumers in the market subsequent to a few unfortunate incidents happened in 2015, the HKTb will step up promotion of Hong Kong's hospitable image and quality service culture so as to enhance business opportunities. With changes in visitor structure and consumer spending pattern, the HKTB's promotion efforts will be focused on drawing high-yield arrivals with diversified products and travel experiences. Families and young segment from short-haul markets visiting Hong Kong as a desirable short-break getaway destination will be expected. As for new markets, more resources will be reserved for India, which performed relatively well in 2015. In view of the popularity of multi-destination travel among long haul markets, the HKTB will collaborate with tourism authorities in the Pearl River Delta region to promote multi-destination itineraries featuring Hong Kong. (Source: Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)

- (iii) The focus of promotion efforts will be shifted from shopping to different travel experiences, including Hong Kong's gourmet culture. (Source: Press Releases, "LCQ5: Tourism promotion projects and programmes", Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 27 January 2016.) Hong Kong's homegrown service and culinary talents will be exposed on the international arena. A consistent supply of professionally trained employees in delivering a high quality of service standard and producing local delicacies and international cuisines at hotel establishments will be required for complementing the new initiative.
- (iv) The connectivity between Hong Kong and the Mainland China will be further enhanced in the coming few years. Not only will Mainland visitors travel to Hong Kong with ease, it facilitates travel by overseas visitors to the Mainland via Hong Kong. Upon the commissioning of the HZMB, Lantau will become the converging point of Guangdong, Hong Kong and Macao, which would in turn provide ample opportunities for business and travelling. The XRL will benefit Hong Kong's various service industries, promote Hong Kong's tourism, and create over 10,000 direct job opportunities. (Sources: 八幅圖同你睇高鐵, facebook of new.gov.hk, The HKSAR Government, 12 January 2016; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, February 2016.)
- (v) Asia is a fast-growing business travel market amid its growing importance in the global economy. According to the forecast by the UNWTO, business visitor arrivals to the Asia-Pacific region will increase by an annual average of 5.1% in 2010-2020 and 3.7% in 2020-2030. The figures are higher than the corresponding growth rates of 3.5% and 2.7% for the global average. (Source: Hong Kong's tourism industry, Research Brief Issue No.6 2014-15, Research office, Legislative Council Secretariat, August 2015.) MICE as well as cruise tourism also draws high value-added visitors to Hong Kong. The HKTB will continue to strengthen promotion towards MICE event organisers and partner with professional associations and convention organisers so as to attract more MICE events as well as MICE visitors with high spending power to Hong Kong. Events successfully secured include the 55th Orient and Southern Asian Lions Forum, the World Congress of Anesthesiologists 2016, the 26th International Congress of The Transplantation Society, etc. For meetings and incentive travel, focus will be placed on short-haul markets such as South Korea, the Mainland, India and Indonesia. The U.S. and European markets will be targeted for conventions. (Sources: Press Releases, “LCQ5: Tourism promotion projects and programmes”, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 27 January 2016; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)

- (vi) The number of ship calls at the KTCT has already increased from nine in 2013 to 28 in 2014 and 58 in 2015. It is anticipated that the number of ship calls in 2016 and 2017 will increase to 90 and 162 respectively. In 2015, the total cruise passenger throughput (excluding local residents) of Hong Kong was over 746,000, a decrease of 5.8% over 2014. However, the total cruise passenger throughput of the KTCT was 228,809, which was double that of 2014. (Sources: Cruise Passenger Statistics by Nationality / Territory, HKTB, January 2016; KTCT Year-on-Year development, KTCT Official Website [<http://www.kaitakcruiseterminal.com.hk/highlights/>], January 2016.) The Tourism Commission will work closely with the HKTB and the terminal operator to promote Hong Kong as a regional cruise hub. (Sources: Press Release, “CS visits EMSD, KTCT and Energizing Kowloon East Office”, Information Services Department, The HKSAR Government, 2 July 2015; “Tourism chiefs eye big spenders”, The Standard, 14 December 2015.)

Since the commissioning of the KTCT, its number of ship calls has been increasing steadily. The number of ship calls for this year will be more than double that of last year, and its passenger throughput will correspondingly increase. Furthermore, the Government is also committed to developing cruise tourism in Hong Kong, including the promotion of regional co-operation with neighbouring ports to enhance the attractiveness of the whole region to cruise companies. With the HKTB, the cruise travel trade will roll out tactical cruise packages featuring Hong Kong in various source markets, which encourage the inclusion of local excursion itineraries before and after the cruise trips or hotel accommodation options, thus assist to attract more cruise visitors and extend their stay. As “fly-cruise” tourism will be developed, these passengers will usually have a longer stay in Hong Kong and will be a welcome sources of patronage for our hotels as well. (Source: Press Releases, “SCED’s speaking notes on commerce, industry and tourism areas tabled at LegCo Finance Committee special meeting”, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, 30 March 2015; Legislative Council Panel on Economic Development, HKTB Work Plan for 2016-17, [LC Paper No. CB(4)590/15-16(04)], Tourism Commission, Commerce and Economic Development Bureau, The HKSAR Government, February 2016.)

- (vii) In 2016 – 17, the HKTB will continue to host numerous mega events and scale up these with enhanced and new elements. The core experiences

Hong Kong offer will be promoted in various source markets including night life, attractions, living culture, arts and entertainment, sports and outdoor activities. For example, the FIA Formula E Championship is expected to bring in overseas contestants and spectators who will stay more nights in Hong Kong. These will not only enrich visitors' experience but will also create business opportunities for the hotel industry as well. Furthermore, the KTCT regularly hosts some 20 events per month, and also served as the venue for more star-studded and popular functions in 2015. It has also featured in a number of local and international films, TV programmes, and commercials. The terminal looks forward to further developments in 2016 including more events to be held. (Source: Press Release, KTCT Celebrates a Year of Milestones in 2015". Worldwide Cruise Terminals, 25 January 2016.)

- (viii) The HKSAR Government is committed to nurturing professionals to meet the needs of our society. Since the current academic year, the Government has launched a subsidy scheme of HK$960 million for students pursuing self-financing under graduate programmes in selected disciplines, including tourism and hospitality. This reflects that a continuous supply of trained quality manpower is required for the sustainability of one of the important economic pillars of Hong Kong. (Source: The 2016-17 Budget, Speech by the Financial Secretary, moving the Second Reading of the Appropriation Bill 2016, The HKSAR Government, 24 February 2016.)

3.12 The Policy Address of 2016 indicated that young people can develop their interests and realise their potential through vocational education. The Government has accepted all the recommendations of the Task Force on Promotion of Vocational Education and will actively implement them. The recommendations include fully subsidising Applied Learning courses by secondary schools, extending the Pilot Training and Support Scheme to benefit two more cohorts of 2,000 students in total, and supporting major vocational and professional education and training providers to organise large-scale skills competitions to select representatives of Hong Kong to take part in world skills competitions. (Source: Policy Address 2016, The HKSAR Government, 13 January 2016.) As a leading Vocational and Professional Education Training (VPET) provider in the region with impact on local and global development, the VTC has identified areas for development including VPET promotion and re-structuring the programme portfolio, developing local, Mainland and international strategies etc. which helps Hong Kong to develop and retain a well-trained and dedicated workforce in the long run. Back by staunch support from the Government, the VTC grooms quality manpower for the hotel and related industries. Vocational and professional education and training programmes on hotel studies ranging from degree, higher diplomas and certificates are provided to groom new generations of industry personnel. In-service training programmes and various upgrading training courses and also available for knowledge and skills enhancement purposes. Furthermore, the 18-month Young Hotelier Development Pilot Scheme (also called Earn and Learn Pilot Scheme) was jointly launched by the Federation of Hong Kong Hotel Owners and HTI (formerly HITDC) of the VTC in September 2015 to provide training for students who are interested in joining the industry with a promising future. The Scheme integrates structured vocational education and on-the-job training with clear progression pathways, assisting the youngsters to make fast inroads into the manpower-demanding industry. The Scheme enables the youngsters to acquire professional knowledge and skills while receiving a steady income to develop their career further. Ample and varied opportunities are available for people with different academic background and work experiences to develop themselves in the hotel sector, and VPET serves to be another vocational route for students under the existing education system.

3.13 It is generally noted among industry personnel that retaining the Millennials or Generation Y /Gen Y (those born between around 1980 – 2000) employees has become a major concern of the management. They have different values and expectations towards life and work from those of their previous generations as a result of the global changes in all facets of life in recent decades. They are confronted with a traditional hierarchy within conventional working environments. Some possible measures to tackle the issue include providing them with higher flexibility at work, such as arranging flexible working schedules and venues to allow them for balancing their work and non-work obligations, as long as operational effectiveness and efficiency can be maintained. To them the working teams rank higher than the establishment itself. The younger employees will enjoy their work more and have a sense of belonging if there is a high team spirit working with ‘buddies’. Well versed with digital and electronic technologies, they expect instant and more communications and feedback from their supervisors or even across hierarchical levels. Other than job hopping for better remuneration packages, Millennials will plan for their next career move if they cannot see clearly the pathway for advancement or development within the establishment. The intrinsic values of what the job can offer matter most to them. (Sources: Hong Kong Economic Times, <http://www.hket.com/eti>, 30 June 2015; ‘Generation Y at work: insight from experiences in the hotel sector’, International Journal of Business and Management Vol. III (1), 2015, Robert A. Lewis, Switzerland, 2015.)

3.14 By 2020 it is projected that half of the money spent in the travel sector will come out of the pockets of the Millennials. A unique experience about greeting the new and unfamiliar during travelling is vital to this group. Hotel location is very important as the Millennials want to dive into the local culture. This group of hotel patrons places high importance on the availability of technology, including the availability of free wi-fi as one of the important determinants for choosing a hotel; additionally, easy-to-reach outlets conducive to working on electronic devices are crucial. As most of the Millennials will use mobile devices for booking hotels, checking-in and checking-out of hotels, they want flexibility and a seamless process with self-service rather than interaction with staff. The rise of lifestyle and boutique hotels shows that major hotel brands are preparing for the Millennials. Furthermore, the Generation Z (born around mid- to late-1990s through the 2010s) with the oldest of this generation will soon be working and have money to travel. This younger group of travelers have a lifelong use of technology and social media, are in constant search of information and new platforms of delivery. Though it may be several years before enough Generation Z members are booking hotel rooms to be noticeable, they have influence on their parents on choice of hotels now. Gearing a hotel with technology and media are reasonable investment towards the generations to come. (Sources: “Millennials in the hospitality industry: How hotels need to adapt”, <https://www.daylighted.com>, 2015; “What Should Your Hotel Know About Generation Z?”, <http://lodgingmagazine.com>, 1 March 2016.) Hotel’s design, artwork, amenities and services should well be embraced for capturing the attitude and purchasing habits of these hotel guests.

The Survey Findings

3.15 The Training Board has examined the survey findings and is of the opinion that those generally reflect the manpower situation of the hotel industry at the time of the survey. The Training Board considered that the trend for the increase in the total number of employees would continue. To enhance cost efficiency, it is anticipated that the trend of hiring part-time and casual employees would persist in the industry.

Manpower Changes by Job Level

3.16 In September 2015, there were 37 154 employees (excluding trainees / apprentices) in the hotel industry, representing an increase of 395 (1.07%) over the 2013 figure. An analysis of the manpower changes by job level is given in the following table:

| Job Levels            | 2013   | 2015   | Increase (%)* |                |

Vacancies

3.17 At the time of the survey, there were 1 354 reported vacancies as compared to 1 203 in 2013. The present vacancies attributed to 3.6% of the total workforce as compared to 3.3% in 2013. The largest number of vacancies (1 048) was found in craft / operative level jobs. The Training Board is of the opinion that most employers would still be cautious in filling the vacancies under a volatile business environment. They might not fill all vacancies substantively but chose to employ part-time or temporary employees and continue to exercise multi-tasking in the existing operation to increase cost efficiency.

Employer's Manpower Forecast for September 2016

3.18 Employers' forecast of the 12-month manpower growth in the 2015 survey indicated a positive growth rate.

Manpower Projection for 2016 - 2018

3.19 The Training Board observed that additional manpower requirements would be needed for 32 planned new hotels with 7 439 rooms in 2016, and 18 new hotels with 4 409 rooms in 2017 and 12 new hotels with 2 701 rooms in 2018. The projected number of hotels and hotel rooms were quoted from the Hotel Supply Situation Report as at December 2015 published by the HKTB. However, it should be noted that given the dynamics of the hotel industry, the projected figures for the new hotels must be viewed with caution as some of the planned hotel projects might not materialise.

3.20 While new hotel projects are being planned, existing hotels will also be undergoing expansion and modernization to enhance their competitiveness. Furthermore, with rapid development in the tourism and hotel sectors within the region, competition for manpower shortage in the hotel industry would be anticipated in the next few years, putting more pressure on the already shrinking talent pool of the local hotel industry.

3.21 For the purpose of manpower projection, a staff to room ratio of 0.65:1 would be adopted to obtain the manpower projection. The projected number of hotel rooms by the Hong Kong Tourism Board will be used as a basis to project manpower as follows:

Table 3.21: Projection of Manpower in 2016 – 2018

| Year | Actual Manpower | Employers Forecast | @Projected Manpower | #Projected No. of Rooms |

Promotion Pattern

3.22 Based on the number employed at the same job level, the survey indicated that 3.7% of the managerial / professional positions and 3.6% supervisory / technician positions were filled by internal promotion. It appears that hotels are willing to offer reasonable promotion opportunities to their employees. The Training Board considers that hotels should strive to provide long-term career development and training opportunities for their employees to enhance staff retention.

Preferred Mode of Training

3.23 On the whole, employers preferred to provide training to their employees at all job levels utilising the seminars / workshops mode at education / training institutions than to sending staff to attend part-time day release or evening mode of training.

3.24 The pre-employment and upgrading courses of the VTC provide a stable source of trained personnel for the industry.

Preferred Qualifications of Employees

3.25 The survey indicated that employers generally preferred University Degree and Professional Diploma / Diploma for managerial / professional level positions, Professional Diploma / Diploma and Secondary 5 – 7 for supervisory / technician level positions. Secondary 5-7 and Secondary 3-4 were preferred for jobs in the Craft / Operative level positions, Secondary 5-7 and Professional Diploma / Diploma were preferred for jobs in the Administrative and Others levels positions. The Training Board is of the view that possessing the right personality and positive attitude would be extremely important for the hotel workforce regardless of qualifications.

Wastage

3.26 The annual training requirement is based on employers' forecast manpower growth and wastage rate. Wastage rate refers to those leaving the hotel industry because of change of jobs to other sectors, retirement, emigration and other causes. After consultation with the industry, the Training Board considers that an annual wastage rate of 2% for managerial / professional and supervisory / technician levels and 10% for other job levels in the hotel industry would be appropriate.

Training Requirement Forecast

3.27 Based on the LMA forecast of manpower growth and the wastage of employees, the Training Board has projected the additional manpower requirements of the industry for 2016 in Table 3.27 below:

SECTION IV

RECOMMENDATIONS

Recommended Additional Training Requirements

4.1 Though facing external and internal challenges, with the strong enthusiasm and dedicated efforts by the HKSAR Government and industry partners, Hong Kong's tourism industry has immense potentialities for further growth and development. It is often the case that during less than favourable times, the training function in businesses will often give way to other revenue generating initiatives. Throughout the years the hospitality industry has earned a high reputation in providing professional service standard within the region. However, the Training Board is of the opinion that in a fast-evolving business environment where people and technologies keep shaping the hotel industry every other moment, quality training and education is highly important for nurturing a continuous supply of manpower for differentiating the unique strengths of the industry from our competitors. To maintain viability and continuous development of the hotel industry, the Training Board recommends the HKSAR Government to take the lead and join hands with industry partners and accredited vocational education and training institutions in recruiting, equipping and retaining new and existing talents for the industry.

4.2 From the projection of manpower demand of the hotels, the following table presents the recommended training requirements of the hotel industry for 2016:

Table 4.2: Recommended Training Requirements of the Hotel Industry in 2016

Recommended Training Routes for Managerial and Professional Levels

4.3 Managers and professionals are members of the management team involved in policy making of a company and / or responsible for managing the day-to-day operations of a major function or department of the organisation. For jobs at this level, the Training Board recommends that employers recruit degree and professional diploma / diploma or equivalent qualifications holders to enrich their management knowledge and skills. For continuous upgrading and development, they should be well equipped with updated knowledge and skills as required by the ever changing industry. Managers / professional staff could be trained through part-time managerial / supervisory level courses and / or they can attend relevant workshops, seminars and conferences offered by reputable training and education institutions locally or overseas. Job rotations at various locations and even industry attachments can be arranged to share the best practices amongst industry practitioners.

Recommended Training Routes for Technician and Supervisory Levels

4.4 A technician or supervisor is a person whose education, practical training and experience enable him / her to apply techniques and procedures to his / her work and to carry out technical and supervisory responsibilities under the supervision of a managerial / professional staff member. Technicians and supervisors play an important role at the middle management level.

4.5 To prepare for career advancement and continuous development, technicians and supervisors could be trained through part-time or full-time technician / supervisory courses offered by quality training providers.

Recommended Training Routes for Craftsman / Operative Levels

4.6 Craft and Operative level workers normally engage in repetitive work which requires a specific range of skills. Operative training should be well-planned and interesting. Practical skills such as customer service and language training for new recruits should be provided. Refresher / upgrading and retraining should also be offered to convert serving operative employees into a more versatile multi-skilled workforce. Employers are also urged to offer the more capable operative level staff opportunities for career advancement through proper training.

Technical Education and Training Institutions

4.7 A wide range of full-time, part-time day-release and part-time evening training courses relevant to the hotel industry are being offered by a number of tertiary, vocational and training institutions and government body. These include, among others, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, The University of Hong Kong (SPACE), Hong Kong Baptist University, City University of Hong Kong (SCOPE), The Open University of Hong Kong, Caritas Bianchi College of Careers, Caritas Institute of Community Education, Employees Retraining Board, and the Technological and Higher Education Institute of Hong Kong, Hong Kong Institute of Vocational Education (Chai Wan and Haking Wong Campuses), HTI and Chinese Culinary Institute (CCI) and International Culinary Institute (ICI) of the VTC.

4.8 A list of the relevant full-time and part-time courses offered by the members of VTC in 2016/17 Academic Year is presented in Tables 4.9(a)-(h). Graduates from these courses are well received by the industry as they possess hands-on experience and could readily contribute to the industry. Employers are encouraged to recruit graduates of these training courses. In addition, seminars, workshops and demonstrations organised by these bodies will help employers, managers and supervisors to acquire new knowledge, technologies and skills which in turn assist them in training up their staff.

4.9 Mainstream education is not a straightjacket that fits all young people as everyone has his or her own interests, aptitude and abilities. The positioning of vocational and professional education and training in our education system should be enhanced. The values and virtues of this alternative route of education leading to career success and lifelong personal development should be reinforced in the society. This will not only provide more study paths for youngsters, it will contribute to providing a continuous supply of trained quality manpower for the industry.

4.10 To cope with the changing needs of the hospitality industry, it is vital for in-service employees to embark on life-long learning. It is important that employers should recognise such a need and support their employees to attend upgrading courses / training programmes / workshops / seminars for the acquisition of new knowledge and skills.

Hotel and Tourism Institute /
International Culinary Institute / Chinese Culinary Institute and Institute of Vocational Education, VTC

4.11 The Hotel and Tourism Institute expects to have an annual trainee through-put of 1 006 for its full-time courses and 920 for its part-time courses in AY 2015/16. In AY 2016/17 732 full-time and 1 000 part-time training places have been planned.

4.12 The Chinese Culinary Institute expects to have an annual trainee through-put of 338 for its full-time courses and 765 for its part-time courses in AY 2015/16. In AY 2016/17, 315 full-time and 866 part-time training places have been planned.

4.13 The International Culinary Institute expects to have an annual trainee through-put of 583 for its full-time courses and 1 095 for its part-time courses in AY 2015/16. In AY 2016/17 573 full-time and 1 075 part-time training places have been planned.

4.14 The Hong Kong Institute of Vocational Education (Chai Wan and Haking Wong) estimated that there will be 1,870 full-time graduates in AY 2015/16 and an estimated output of 1 725 full-time graduates in AY 2016/17.

4.15 The Training Board strongly urges employers to give full support to the training providers by recruiting trainees / graduates from these institutions and send their in-service employees to attend the relevant up-grading / refresher courses.

Training for Employee

4.16 Staff quality is without doubt one of the major factors in determining the viability and profitability of a hotel business. Training is often considered necessary for new entrants or only to fulfill a special objective on an ad hoc basis. However, continuous training for existing employees of all levels strengthens their skill sets and brings in new knowledge to improve their work and to adjust to rapidly changing job requirements. Reasons for emphasizing the growth and development of employee include a) creating a pool of readily available and adequate replacements for employee who may leave or move up in the organization; b) enhancing the hotel's ability to adopt and use advances in technology because of a sufficiently knowledgeable staff; c) building a more efficient, effective and highly motivated team, which enhances the hotel's competitive position and improves employee morale; and, d) ensuring adequate human resources for expansion into new programs.

4.17 The Training Board is of the view that the existing 37 154 strong in-service employees will need upgrading and updated training to remain competitive and efficient to cope with the forecasted increasing customer and business demand.

Quality of Training Programmes

4.18 The Training Board acknowledges the changing needs of the hotel industry, and agrees that it is vital for in-service employees to embark on life-long learning. It is equally important that employers recognise such needs and support their employees to attend upgrading courses / training programmes / workshops / seminars / competition for the acquisition of new knowledge and skills with reputable training institutes. The Training Board is also concerned with the quality of hotel courses being offered to the general public, and recommends that course participants should enroll in courses offered by reputable and accredited education and training institutions.

4.19 With the increasing number of international travelers to Hong Kong, the Training Board is of the opinion that there is an urgent need to upgrade the standard of English, Putonghua, but not limited to other language of target markets, such as Japanese and Korean. Providing more opportunities for practical-based training and workshops in the areas of hotel services and food and beverage services, plus taking part in relevant trade-specific competitions and trade tests would further enhance the employees' exposure, knowledge and skills. More education and training are required for international culinary operations and service, wine, bartending, tea and coffee making. Knowledge on the social, cultural, geographical, economic, political aspects of new and emerging markets; MICE, cruise, spa, health club facilities and services, as well as awareness in work ethics, social and corporate responsibilities, and communication, inter-personal and problem solving skills. As the new generations of the technological era are joining the hotel workforce, the employers and employees, trainers and educators should join hands to unleash the potentials of the new entrants and to nurture them for the future development and sustainability of the hotel industry. In order to create a quality difference in the hotel staff of Hong Kong, the value-added element should be incorporated into training courses to stimulate the creativity and sensitivity in providing the ‘extra-touch’ to first-timers and sophisticated visitors.

Skills Upgrading Scheme Plus Courses (SUS Plus)

4.20 The Training Board supports the Skills Upgrading Scheme Plus Courses (SUS Plus) for the hotel industry. Both employers and employees should make use of the Continuing Education Fund and various government funded skills upgrading schemes for further skills enhancement.

Competition for Talents in the Pearl River Delta Region

4.21 With the rapid development of the tourism industry in the Pearl River Delta (PRD) Region, including Macau, the demand for hotel industry talents will continue to be an important issue. It is expected that the development of regional competitors will have impact on the supply of talented and experienced staff when they explore career opportunities other than in Hong Kong. The Training Board, therefore, recommends the Government to increase the level of resources to support the manpower growth of the industry by increasing resources provisions, especially for established hotel and hospitality programmes, and to take appropriate measures to counter the possible outflow of industry personnel.

Staff Turnover

4.22 The Training Board believes that other than providing attractive salary, improved working conditions, higher work flexibility, enhanced team spirit, long term career development and training opportunities provided to hotel employees will help retain staff and reduce staff turnover and wastage rates.

Training Conferences / Seminars

4.23 The Training Board will continue to support the conference and experience-sharing seminars / workshops for the practitioners in the industry.

Future Surveys

4.24 The Training Board recommends conducting the full-scale manpower survey once every four years with annual qualitative update to assess the manpower demand and supply in the industry.

6th October 2015

Dear Sir/Madam,

The 2015 Manpower Survey of the Hotel Industry

I am writing to ask for your cooperation in the 2015 Manpower Survey of the Hotel Industry to be conducted by the Hotel, Catering and Tourism Training Board of the Vocational Training Council.

The Training Board is responsible for matters pertaining to manpower training in the hospitality industry. In order to formulate meaningful recommendations on manpower training for the hotel industry, the Training Board will conduct the captioned survey from 13th October to 13th November 2015. A reference day is given as 25th September 2015, to collect the following information on the principal jobs:

- (i) the number of existing employees,
- (ii) the number of existing vacancies,
- (iii) forecast total number of employees in September 2016, and
- (iv) the number of employees under training at present.

The information collected will be handled in strict confidence and will be published in the form of statistical summaries without reference to any individual establishment.

I am enclosing for your reference and completion the following documents in both English and Chinese:

- (i) a copy of the questionnaire (Appendix A),
- (ii) explanatory notes (Appendix B), and
- (iii) descriptions of principal jobs (Appendix C).

During the survey period, an officer of the Census and Statistics Department will contact your office. The officer will assist in the completion of the questionnaire, if necessary, and collect the completed questionnaire for processing.

Should you have any queries in connection with the survey, please contact the Manpower Statistics Section of the Census and Statistics Department by telephoning 2116 8534.

Yours faithfully,

(Mr. Larry Tchou Ming-Kong)
Chairman

Hotel, Catering and Tourism Training Board

Explanatory Notes
附註

Part I
第一部份

1. Please complete all columns ('A' to 'N') of the questionnaire which are applicable to your business sector and insert a zero (0) in any column which is not.
請填寫表內 (A) 至 (N) 欄。如不適用，請填 (0) 符號。

2. Time Reference of Data
調查參考日

All the data entered should refer to the position as at 25th September 2015 when completing the questionnaire.

請在填寫問卷時，以二〇一五年九月二十五日作為調查參考日。

3. Column 'A' - Titles of Principal Jobs in the Hotel Industry
(A) 欄 — 酒店業主要職務名稱

- (a) Some of the job titles may not be the same as those used in your establishment. Please classify an employee according to his/her major duty and supply the required information if the jobs have similar or related functions.

表內部分職稱可能有別於貴機構所採用者。請根據僱員的主要職責分類。若員工職責與表內某職務的職責相近，可視作相同職務，請提供所需資料。

- (b) Please add in column 'A' any jobs not covered by the Job Description but are considered as principal jobs in your establishment. Please briefly outline their job descriptions and indicate their skill levels.

請在 'A' 欄內填寫貴機構的其他主要職位，並扼要說明其工作內容及所屬技能等級。

- (c) Please enter the information of employees in your establishment by their skill levels, and provide information as required by Columns 'B' to 'H' of the questionnaire.

請按類別及技能等級，填寫貴機構的人員數目及調查表 (B) 至 (H) 欄所需的資料。

- (d) 'Administrative and others' level staff refers to those employees whose activities are not usually specific to hotel industry, such as secretaries and messengers.

「文員及其他員工」是指並非專責酒店業事務的員工，例如秘書及信差等。

4. Column 'B' – Average Monthly Income Code

(B) 欄 — 平均每月收入編號

Please enter in this column the appropriate code number showing the average monthly income range for the employee(s). The monthly income should include basic salary, overtime pay, cost of living allowance, meal allowance, housing allowance, travel allowance, commission and bonus. (See Note* in the last page)

請填寫僱員平均每月收入幅度的編號。「每月收入」包括底薪、逾時工作津貼、生活津貼、膳食津貼、房屋津貼、旅行津貼、佣金及花紅。（見尾頁備註*）
